Irvington to Study Plans For Two Drainage Systems

Plans, specifications and costs and methods of financing two proposed alternate drainage projects for Irvington will be presented to the Irvington Chamber of Commerce at their first evening meeting scheduled for Tuesday, April 29.

The plans, to be given in detail at the dinner meeting, are the results of recently completed surveys undertaken by H. Vivrette, engineer for the Alameda County Planning Commission, and the Chamber's flood control committee consisting of Carl Christensen, Jack Prouty and Lloyd Bailey.

"There are two methods of financing the necessary work to insure adequate drainage for the Irvington area," a committee spokesman told The Register.

"Financing may be undertaken through voluntary subscription or through the possible creation of a separate flood control zone," he stated. "We are requesting advice from the district attorney's office as to the best method to pursue."

It was pointed out that there already exists a flood control district for the area in the Alameda Flood Control and Water Conservation District, and that it was not yet certain whether a zone could be established within the existing district which could legally raise revenues to meet local drainage projects.

Although details of the projects will not be made public until Tuesday's meeting of the Chamber, The Register learned that the cost of one would be approximately $7,000.

One of the projects, it was learned, calls for the construction of drainage canals to by-pass the present commercial and residential area of Irvington in order not to overload existing drainage facilities.

Tuesday's meeting of the Irvington Chamber will be at Roethlin's Cafe at 7 p.m.

TWO PLEAD GUILTY ON BATTERY COUNT

Two farm laborers plead guilty to battery charges and were sentenced to 30 days in jail or $150 fine by Judge E. A. Quaresma in the township justice court Tuesday. The two chose confinement rather than pay the fine.

The charges of battery grew out of a fracas occurring at a dance held April 15 at the Odd Fellows Hall, Niles. Albert R. Gomez, 18, and Julian Ramirez, 22, Centerville farm hands, admitted striking 18-year-old Albert S. Sandoval, Livermore, with a beer bottle. Sandoval suffered gashes on his face requiring 14 stitches.

The fight occurred at 11:15 in front of the dance hall. Arresting officers were Bunting and Pearson of the sheriff's substation office at Centerville.

TOWNSHIP CHAMBER TO DECIDE ON OWN FAIR EXHIBIT

The Washington Township Chamber of Commerce plans to participate jointly with the associated chambers of commerce of the county in the Alameda County Fair, Col. Gene Manning, executive secretary of the chamber announced Wednesday.

Manning attended a meeting of the fair committee of the associated chambers Monday in San Leandro.

"Present plans call the chambers to jointly sponsor an exhibit having the theme of 'Education in Alameda County,'" Manning said.

"No decision has yet been reached," he added, "as to whether the Township Chamber and its associated member chambers should sponsor an exhibit of its own."

The Township Chamber has not in the past sponsored a county fair exhibit. The proposal to do so was made by the Niles Chamber at a recent meeting. Decision on the Niles proposal will be made at the next meeting, Manning indicated.

The county fair has been scheduled for June 20 through July 6.

Invitations to all communities in the township to participate individually have been issued by the Alameda County Agricultural Fair Association. No action on the invitation has as yet been taken by the local chambers of commerce.

JOINT CHAMBERS LAUD GRIMMERS

Father and son were honored for civic service in unusual ceremonies held Wednesday at the annual get-together of the Centerville and Irvington Chambers of Commerce.

A scroll of honor and gifts signalled the Chamber's regard for Dr. E. M. Grimmer Sr., past president of the Irvington Chamber; and for his son, Dr. E. M. Grimmer Jr., past president of the Centerville group.

"We are very fortunate to have such men as you who will volunteer for civic jobs," declared Judge Allen G. Norris, who made the presentations at a dinner attended by nearly 200 township residents in San Jose's Hawaiian Gardens.

Arrangements and introduction of guests were handled by A. E. Alameda of the Irvington Chamber. Dancing and a floor show concluded the annual joint meeting of the two organizations.

9-YEAR-OLD HELD FOR VANDALISM

A nine-year-old Hillview Crest boy, currently on probation, was in custody of county juvenile authorities again this week after admitting to vandalism committed in a neighborhood home.

After being away from his home only a few hours, Orvil Lytle returned to find his entire house in shambles. Furniture had been slashed, cupboards and dresser drawers emptied, and syrup and ashes poured on beds and chairs.

Four unopened beer cans in the kitchen led Detective Everett King to suspect the act was perpetrated by teen-agers.

Besides committing the vandalism, the young culprit stole opera glasses, binoculars, a hunting knife and a flash light. The glasses and binoculars he threw away, hiding the knife and flash light in a trash can near his home. No estimate of the total damage has been made known. Sheriff Deputies Police Turner and Dave Tipping made the investigation.

'LET MUSIC RING' IS SHOW THEME BY 700 CHILDREN

"Let Music Ring" is the name chosen for the third annual Washington Township Music Festival to be presented by 700 children of the elementary schools May 1, at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium of the Washington Union High School.

"What music has meant and what it has contributed to the lives of people is the theme of the festival," stated Lee Lykens, supervisor of music for the Alameda County Schools.

Lykens is director and producer of the festival for which the children of ten elementary schools in the township have been preparing over the past three months.

Featured on the program will be a chorus of nearly 500 children's voices and an orchestra of 175.

An Irvington Elementary School dance group of 50 will present two numbers. The Decoto Elementary School drum and bugle corps will join the chorus and orchestra in two numbers, "This Is My Country" and "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

A special verse choir, composed of 26 students from the Newark Elementary School, will give a running narration on the theme, Lykens announced.

The festival will open with a flag ceremony and the presentation of sponsors by Judge Allen G. Norris of Centerville.

The complete program follows:

1. Let Music Ring — Composer unknown.
2. Chorus: Old Hundred—Genevan Psalter; Prayer of Thanksgiving, Netherlands Folk Song; Dona Nobis Pacem, Composer unknown.
3. Orchestra: Processional March, Gounod; Chorus: Morris Dance, Old English; Dance Group: Maypole Dance.
4. Chorus: Ding de Banjo, Stephen C. Foster; Jacob's Ladder, Negro Spiritual.
5. Chorus: Wagon Wheels, Peter De Rose; Old Chisholm Trail, Cowboy Song.
6. Orchestra: Mexican, Mexican Melody; Dance Group, Mexican Dance; Chorus: Let's Dance, Howorth.
7. Drum and Bugle Corps and Orchestra: Let Freedom Ring, Herfurth; Chorus: This Is My Country, Jacobs.
8. Chorus and Orchestra: Battle Hymn of the Republic, Howe.

FOUR DIPHTHERIA CASES REPORTED

Diphtheria is again present in Southern Alameda County, health authorities announced this week.

Four cases of the disease were disclosed within the past week, Dr. James C. Malcolm, county health officer, announced.

"This brings to eight the number of cases since January," Dr. Malcolm stated. "It emphasizes the urgency of adequate immunization for all children up to the age of fifteen."

Efforts are being made to trace the source of the disease and five families are under surveillance to check its spread.

Parents are urged to take their children to their family doctor if their immunization is not up to date, or visit one of the immunization clinics. Records should be kept of all immunizations for reference, it was suggested.

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING

When we came to Washington Township eight years ago, there was one thing we weren't told. We were told that the climate was fine, business prospects good, living economical, and accessibility to city life—if we felt we needed it occasionally—easy.

The thing that we WEREN'T told, however, was this: that the people here are friendlier, more cooperative, and more loyal than we would have thought possible.

This is the last issue of The Register to be published by the

RED CROSS DRIVE TO END APRIL 30

Slightly over $3,500 has been contributed to date in the annual Washington Township Red Cross drive, Ann Mayock, fund chairman, announced yesterday.

The drive goes into its final days with last collections being made on April 30. A goal of $6,000 had been set for the township.

"The help rendered by the Red Cross in the current disastrous floods in the middle west," Mrs. Mayock stated, "has clearly shown the need of our support of that organization."

Mrs. Mayock issued an appeal to those who have not yet subscribed, to do so through their community fund committee.

MUSICK GRANTED LEAVE OF ABSENCE BY DECOTO SCHOOLS

Lewis W. Musick, 48, district superintendent of the Decoto Elementary Schools, has decided to call a halt some time this year to his career with the Decoto Elementary Schools.

Musick, who for the past 17 years has served the district as superintendent, principal and vice-principal—sometimes concurrently—has been granted a leave of absence at his request by the board of trustees. The leave is to become effective upon the appointment of a successor, it has been announced.

Musick came to the Decoto School system in the fall of 1935 following graduation from Polytechnical College of Engineering in Oakland.

Friends this week recalled some of the progressive steps taken by the Decoto schools under Musick's leadership. He is remembered to have installed the first physical education program in the elementary school, a program that has grown during the years so that it now includes midget basketball, football, and both soft and hard ball.

His administration is credited with the establishment of a community playground for Decoto children, organized and supervised play programs being carried out each afternoon and on Saturday and Sundays.

The expansion of the school plant has been almost continuous since 1947, when the first addition to the Decoto Elementary School was added at a cost of $62,000. Since then nearly a million dollars in local and state funds have been spent or earmarked for school expansion in the Decoto area. Two schools are now in operation, another will be built this summer, and a fourth is on the drawing board.

Musick recently returned from a trip to Washington with Vaughn D. Seidel, Alameda county school superintendent, where the two testified before the House of Representatives' sub-committee on a bill allocating funds for school construction in districts not classified as defense or military zones.

In announcing his retirement from the Decoto School system, Musick stated he had no immediate plans for the future.

During the war years Musick was granted leave of absence to serve with the United States Navy. He holds a Lieutenant-Commander's commission now in the organized reserves.

Royal honors will go to the boy and girl whose class sells the most tickets for the two-day show, the nominee becoming eligible by having sold ten tickets by himself or herself. The winners will be announced this morning and this evening will be presented with engraved identification bracelets.

Fifteen local civic and social organizations are sponsoring booths at the carnival. A two hour variety show featuring can-can dancers, comedy acts and an Australian tag wrestling match will commence at 8 p.m. Doors will open at 7 for previews of the booths.

Students in five grades of the Irvington Elementary School competed this week for the honor of being named King or Queen of the Irvington Carnival which opens tonight at the Irvington Community Center.

Royal honors will go to the boy and girl whose class sells the most tickets for the two-day show, the nominee becoming eligible by having sold ten tickets by himself or herself. The winners will be announced this morning and this evening will be presented with engraved identification bracelets.

Thank you for that—and for the many words of encouragement we have received during the eight years. We'll never forget it.

—Vivian and Vern Batman.

NO DATE SET FOR 78-FOOT WIDENING OF THORNTON AVE.

No definite date has been set for the commencement of work on the widening of Thornton Avenue, state highway authorities informed the Township Chamber of Commerce this week.

"The plan, as approved by the State Division of Highways, will not be put into effect until some future time," H. A. Sommers, district highway planning engineer, stated.

It was also made clear by highway engineers that there is not plan now under consideration to widen Thornton Avenue except that length between Hesperian Boulevard (Main Street, Centerville) and the proposed cloverleaf intersection with the contemplated Eastshore Freeway. The widening of Thornton Avenue from the Eastshore Freeway to Dumbarton Bridge approach through Newark is not contemplated, it was stated.

"The widening of Thornton will be done purely to secure an adequate local exit and entrance route to the freeway for the people of Centerville," Sommers stated. "It is not meant to funnel other traffic onto the freeway."

Sommers, and L. A. Weymouth, district engineer for the State Division of Highways at San Francisco, met this week with Col. Eugene Manning, executive secretary of the Township Chamber, and a group of citizens from Centerville.

Under questioning by Manning, it was made clear by the engineers that there was also no thought at the present to effect any change in the present connection between Thornton Avenue and Fremont Avenue (Niles-Centerville Road) or to continue the widening of Thornton Avenue or any avenue east of Main Street toward Niles.

The proposed widening of Thornton Avenue calls for a six-lane highway. An additional 78 feet north and 12 feet south of the existing right of way would be required, it was stated.

The plan, before being put into effect, must have the approval of the Alameda County Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors, it was pointed out.

The supervisors would first have to amend existing ordinances limiting the right of way to permit the required set-back necessary for widening the avenue. Set-back regulations govern the distance between buildings and right of way.

Manning indicated yesterday that the Township Chamber would work closely with the member chambers who are concerned in the matter.

"We thought immediately of proposing an alternate route," Manning stated. "Actually this had already been done. What we will do is to present our findings and our recommendations to the planning commission at the appropriate time."

"We must act in a way so as not to defeat the freeway," he added.

CARNIVAL ROYALTY SELECTED TODAY

Students in five grades of the Irvington Elementary School competed this week for the honor of being named King or Queen of the Irvington Carnival which opens tonight at the Irvington Community Center.

Royal honors will go to the boy and girl whose class sells the most tickets for the two-day show, the nominee becoming eligible by having sold ten tickets by himself or herself. The winners will be announced this morning and this evening will be presented with engraved identification bracelets.

Fifteen local civic and social organizations are sponsoring booths at the carnival. A two hour variety show featuring can-can dancers, comedy acts and an Australian tag wrestling match will commence at 8 p.m. Doors will open at 7 for previews of the booths.

Hospital Board Votes $22,000 to Buy Site

A long step toward a community hospital for this area was taken last night when directors of the Washington Township Hospital District voted $22,000 to buy a 10-acre site on Santos Road.

The directors agreed to purchase the land from the Stivers Estate. Actual construction of the hospital awaits:

1. Public vote on a bond issue at some date still to be set.
2. Possible condemnation proceedings against one of the minority heirs in the estate who has balked at the sale.

VIEWS DIFFER ON THORNTON CHANGE

A committee to investigate the proposed future widening of Thornton Avenue at its Centerville approach has been named by Jack Coley, president of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce.

The committee, instructed to make its recommendations to the Chamber next Monday, was appointed following the expression of divergent views by members of the Chamber on the proposal of the State Division of Highways to add an additional 78 feet north of the existing right of way.

Discussion of the proposed widening highlighted the Chamber's weekly meeting Tuesday.

Louis Cardoza, Earl Hygelund and Ralph Goodwin were named to the committee with instructions to obtain the views of both property owners along the right of way of the highway as well as Centerville business concerns.

The Chamber also approved the recommendations of its safety committee to request the installation by highway authorities of a traffic signal at Machado Corners, the intersection of Jarvis Road and Highway 17.

The intersection has been the scene of serious auto crashes in the past, the most recent accident occurring there taking the life of one and causing serious injuries to two.

MYSTERY MAN WAS BORN IN DECOTO

You probably guessed that last week's "mystery man" was Harry Querner of the International Kitchen.

If you are still in a guessing frame of mind, see what you can do with our "man of the week" today. If you can't identify him, turn through the pages of this issue. You will find the answer.

He was born in 1880 in Decoto. He moved to Niles in 1897, and has been here ever since.

He opened up his present business in Niles in 1902, and his partner was the late Judge Silva.

He stopped smoking in 1925, and never was a drinker. The only thing in the way of alcoholic beverages he ever took was an occasional schooner of beer when he used to go to dances at Stonybrook Park. "And you used to be able to dance all night for a dime."

He's never lived anywhere else but Washington Township, and the longest trip he ever took was to Oregon.

Once he got a ticket for speeding—on a bicycle! That was back in 1900 when he was employed in a brick yard in Pleasanton.

He's been married for 50 years, and the reason he and his wife get along so well together is that they made a bargain when they were first married: if she started an argument, he would walk out of the house; if he started an argument, she would walk out of the house. He says that neither one of them have had to walk out.

His favorite recreation is riding, not only Sunday rides, but rides all over California. A confirmed tourist, there's scarcely a spot in California he hasn't visited. Guess who!

90 DAYS FOR THEFT
Pleading guilty to petty theft, John J. Moran, 40, transient laborer, was sentenced to 90 days in county jail this week by Judge E. A. Quaresma.

"There's only one way for the district to get a hospital," explained Lester S. Whitaker of Niles, board chairman. "And that's to pay for it." Whitaker said five years of unsuccessful attempts to secure federal and state funds have convinced the directors that a public bond issue is the only answer.

Whitaker pointed out that the Stivers site is located "in the graphic and population center of the Township."

Principal owners of the land are Ed Stivers and his sister, Ann, both of whom have agreed to the terms. Whitaker added that only the owner of one-fourth of the estate is opposing the sale. He said the board will follow legal advice in turning the $22,000 over to a title company to distribute to the owners, then will bring condemnation proceedings against the balky heir if he persists in blocking the deal.

Organized five years ago, the district has more than $100,000 in tax funds in its treasury, Whitaker said.

NILES DAY SET AT 'RANCH' MAY 4

For the sixth year in a row, Niles residents will trek to the Old Hearst Ranch on Sunday, May 4, to take part in Niles Day festivities sponsored by their Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber President Peter Juhl promises the best Niles Day in the history of the annual spring event. On tap are:

1. A "dude ranch" breakfast at 10 a.m.
2. A transcribed radio show at 11 o'clock.
3. A golf tournament at 1 p.m. over the Hearst Ranch's remodeled 9-hole links.

The radio show will be rebroadcast over Station KSFO the following Sunday at 9:30 a.m. so participants and their families may hear it.

Not only members of the Niles Chamber of Commerce and their families, but every citizen of Niles is urged to attend, Juhl stresses.

Swimming and other forms of recreation are scheduled for non-golfers. The golf tournament will be arranged by Dr. T. C. Wilson.

Tickets for the breakfast and radio show may be obtained this week from Vernon Ellsworth.

P. T. A. TO HOLD DINNER

May 24 is the date of the annual anniversary dinner of the Decoto P. T. A. at the Villa de la Paix in Oakland.

A card party for May 2 also was announced at the Wednesday meeting. Mrs. Elvie Cordoza is chairman for the card party.

Mrs. John Navas, president, asked for nominations for incoming president after the resignation of Mrs. Frances Finlay who was selected by the nominating committee. Mrs. Elvie Cordoza was nominated and elected. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Florence Wallace, first vice-president; Mr. John W. Perry, second vice-president; Mrs. Frank Margarido, secretary; Mrs. Rinaldo Caminada, treasurer; Mrs. Tom Martin, historian; Mrs. Elmer Peixotto, auditor; Mrs. John Navas, parliamentarian; Mrs. A. Costa and Mrs. B. R. Joseph, delegates; Mrs. Galo Gonzales and Mrs. Frank Mateo, alternate delegates.

Mrs. Ann Mayock, Red Cross fund chairman, asked the P.T.A. for its support in collecting funds for the organization. She outlined future benefits and told of the aid the Red Cross gave Decoto in the past year.

Mrs. B. R. Joseph was named Red Cross chairman for Decoto.

Mr. Boyd Morningstar showed a film, "The Shortest Way Home," to members and faculty. It was enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were served by the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Frank Mateo, and her committee.

PINOCCHLE CLUB

Usual members were present when the Pinochle Club met Saturday evening at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. Ed Munoz. The hostess served a delicious cake and coffee.

Mae Watkins won high, Don Morgan second, and Katie Morgan, low honors.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Costa in Decoto.

VICTIM RECOVERS

Mrs. William Davis of 109 Ninth Street is recovering nicely from injuries to her ankle received several weeks ago.

PROMOTION AHEAD

Pfc. Rex Rowlett, who is scheduled to become a corporal, has been stationed at Trieste, Italy, since September. He expects to return to the states sometime in October, and then is slated to be stationed here for three months until his discharge.

Rex now tips the scales at a nice 207 but carries his weight nicely, he reports.

He writes his mother, Mae Watkins, that he is working hard but that gives him that much more appetite. He looks forward to the daily letter she sends him.

NEWARK RECOVERY

Lawrence Wadt (everyone knows him as the "Brushman in Newark") is back on the job after being laid up for several months.

Glad to see you up and around again, Lawrence.

TERRAS SICK

The Terra home has been stricken with illness again but now all are recovering nicely. It seems Kathleen came down with the chickenpox, Buzzy with the measles, and Mommie with a nasty cold. I'm glad to hear that all of you are well on the road to recovery.

TRIP TO STOCKTON

Mr. and Mrs. John Luna motored to Stockton last Sunday to visit some of their family.

ANNIVERSARY FETE

Mr. and Mrs. George Fields celebrated their thirty-first wedding anniversary last Tuesday. Both observed the occasion last Sunday at Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco.

MOVE TO NILES

Clifford Watkins and his mother have recently moved from Decoto and purchased a home in the Ellsworth Tract in Niles. They bought the "model home" there and are enjoying their lovely new residence.

MRS. BAIRD FETED

Mrs. Betty Margarido, a member of the training committee of the Hayward Area Girl Scouts, attended a surprise luncheon April 17 at the home of Mrs. Wilma Fouch honoring Mrs. Helen Baird, who is resigning.

Others attending were Lydia Moniz and Zella Davis, who is field director for the Hayward Council of the Girl Scouts.

SEWING CIRCLE

Nine members were present at the Sewing Circle which met at the home of Mary Re last Wednesday evening, April 16. Refreshments and coffee were enjoyed by all. Those attending were Grace Caminada, Josephine Bernard, Lillian Janeiro, Florence Wallace, Linda Cunha, Zelma Oliver, Frances Avilla, Sally Muniz and Mary Re. The next meeting will be an afternoon session at the home of Linda Cunha on Railroad Avenue, May 1.

WHIST PARTY

Our Lady of the Holy Rosary Guild is sponsoring a whist party on Wednesday, April 30 at 2 p.m. in Decoto Elementary School. The card party will be held in the annex building, in the same room as the baby clinic.

Mrs. Frances Avilla has been named chairman for this month's party. Many prizes will be given.

SYMPATHY NOTE

Deepest sympathy is expressed to Evelyn Joseph on the loss of her brother-in-law.

MAN WANTED!

If you see me stalking a man down the street don't assume that I am pursuing him in the usual sense of the word. Not at all. It will be simply because he has—or I have heard that he has—a rototiller!

Some women like men with black curly hair and wavy lashes. Other women like men with voices like Johnnie Ray's and a structure like Man Mountain Dean's.

But I am different. The only thing that interests me at this point is: does he, or does he not, have a rototiller.

Six weeks ago I heard about a man with a rototiller.

"Will you come and rototill our back yard?" I asked him. "The weeds are getting so bad that every time I go to the back yard to hang out the clothes I feel like the African Queen charging through the jungle."

He said, "Sure, but I'll have to test the soil to see how it is."

He tested it. It was too wet. "Let it dry out for a couple of days. It'll be better then," he assured me.

In two days I called him. "This hot weather has made everything too dry," he said. "We'd better wait. It's going to rain tomorrow."

The day after the rain I called him again. "It's cloudy today," he said. "Be clearing tomorrow."

After two weeks of these daily weather reports, I called another man. "Sure," he said, "I'll do

CUB MEETING

Because the Decoto P.T.A. is holding its whist party on Friday, May 2, the Cub Scout meeting will be held on Monday, April 28. The public is invited to this meeting which will be held at the Decoto Elementary School.

JOIN CHAMBER GROUP

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Costa joined the Centerville and Irvington Chambers of Commerce on Ladies' Night, last Wednesday when they dined at the Hawaiian Gardens in San Jose.

it tomorrow."

Tomorrow came, but he didn't. I called his house. His wife said he was down with hay fever. The next day he had a touch of the flu. The third day he had an aching molar. After a week of giving these daily health reports, his wife said almost hysterically, "He says not to call him again. He's in the advanced stages of creeping paralysis."

It must have been VERY creeping! At least he was able to creep down as far as a corner on Main Street to talk to some of the boys. That's where I saw him the next day.

Then I heard about a landscape man who had a rototiller. "Look," I said desperately, "I'll let you plow up the lawn and replant it; I'll let you install a patio; I'll let you put in expensive shrubs. I'll even throw in a six-weeks all-expense tour to Bermuda. Anything—if you'll only come and rototill those weeds in my back yard."

Did he come? Ha!

So then I had a talk with Rusty, our Irish setter. "See here, chum," I said. "Have you been chasing these rototilling men away? I know you chase the milk men and the garbage men. We can get along without milk, and without garbage. But, in spite of the fact that you think that back-yard jungle is your own private hunting ground for stalking birds, cats, gophers, and prairie chickens, nevertheless those weeds have to go. The neighbors are beginning to treat me as though I were Taft at the Democratic National Convention."

Rusty looked innocent enough, however, so I'm sure it's not his fault.

I've about reached the conclusion that the mechanical age is over-rated.

Does anybody know a cow who would like a week's board—absolutely free? I can guarantee her some of the most tender, succulent, chlorophyll-packed weeds she has ever sunk a tooth into. But better hurry, before a man with a rototiller gets here. Ha!

NIGHTMARE CAKE

I started to make a dream cake the other day. After I'd mixed the dry ingredients, and beaten the eggs, I added—in this order—half a cup of crumbled Roquefort cheese, cup of salad oil, several drops of tobacco, and a third of a cup of vinegar. It wasn't until I was about to dump in a teaspoon of garlic salt that it came to me with amazing clarity that this was certainly a most unusual cake recipe. I had eaten garlic bread, but never garlic cake.

I read the recipe again. I learned with a shock that while I may have started with a cake, I was ending up with "Aunt Susan's Tangy Salad Dressing." A capricious breeze had flipped over a recipe page.

My dream cake turned out to be a nightmare.

SHE'S THE SAFEST
LADY ON THE ROAD

With Chrysler POWER STEERING plus Chrysler POWER BRAKES

At the wheel of a new Chrysler, you have quicker, surer control of motion than you've ever had in a car. You can't imagine what it's like till you drive it! With this full-time power steering, hydraulic power does 4/5 the steering work at your gentle pull on the wheel! You also turn the wheel 1/3 less distance. And on rough roads, soft shoulders, snow or sand, "wheel fight" just doesn't happen. Your hand actually has five times the usual steering control, through every minute of every mile... with the same sure "wheel feel" at all times!

With this safer way to steer, power brakes make stops at all speeds safer and easier, too. Power from the engine "boosts" every touch of your toe. Actually you stop with up to 2/3 less foot pressure than non-power brakes. You can bring your Chrysler to a halt from full speeds in many feet less distance than other cars of comparable size can stop. See your Chrysler dealer soon. Feel for yourself why thousands of owners say Chrysler offers the two greatest advances in many years in driving safety and driving ease!

'RIGOLETTO' IN SAN JOSE FRIDAY

The Pacific Opera Company of San Francisco will take its production of "Rigoletto" to the auditorium, San Jose, on Friday evening, April 25, for a single performance. The sweeping success of the Pacific Opera during its season at the San Francisco Opera House, just closed, at the last performance of which more than 1000 people were turned away, is renewed proof of the high standard of the company.

Francis Barnes, who has sung major roles with many of the country's opera companies, is cast in the title role of Rigoletto. Caesar Curzi, tenor of the San Francisco Opera Company, who scored such a sensational success two years ago, will sing the fickle Duke of Mantua. Gilda will be sung by the lovely Ewan Harbrecht, Los Angeles coloratura.

enjoyed Thursday visiting in Marin County.

WHITESIDES AWAY

MANTECA SOJOURN

Joe and Helen Semas enjoyed their day off from business last week on a ranch near Manteca.

The Niles Farm Home Department of the Alameda County Farm Bureau will hold laundry equipment demonstrations at the home of Mrs. Theresa Swartz today (Friday) at 1:30 p.m.

Free exhibition space and adequate refrigeration facilities will be available to local communities participating in the agricultural show, it was stated.

The Irvington Chamber deferred action on Goodale's proposal until the next meeting of the Chamber.

Bait pans to determine the incidence of codling moths have been placed in Warm Springs, Niles, Centerville and Newark communities.

The main flight of the female moths, which lay the eggs, occurs toward the evening on sunny, warm afternoons. The eggs are deposited on the buds or fruit of pears, apples, walnuts and other fruits.

Upon hatching out, the larva enters the fruit, causing wormy damage to the mature fruit. Spraying with DDT, ten days after a heavy flight of the female moth, goes a long way in the control of worms that make picked fruit unfit for market.

FARM EXHIBITS
WANTED AT FAIR

"Agricultural aspects of the county fair must be built up," George Goodale, representative of the Alameda County Agricultural Fair Association, told members of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce at their weekly meeting Tuesday.

Goodale extended the Irvington Chamber an invitation to enter an agricultural exhibit featuring local produce.

"To stimulate interest," Goodale stated, "we are offering a $100 top prize and other cash awards for the best exhibits."

SAFETY PATROLS TO STAGE REVIEW

Over 900 children of the Southern Alameda County Safety Patrol, the boys and girls who guard the safety of their fellow classmates in the Alameda Schools at street intersections, will be honored at a special review Saturday, May 3, 9:30 a.m., at Hayward High School's football field.

Representatives from the ten elementary schools in Washington Township will participate in the review, Vaughn D. Seidel, superintendent of schools, announced this week.

An open invitation has been extended to all to witness the review which will include twenty-six marching patrols, four high school bands and a drum and bugle corps.

REBEKAH NEWS

An enjoyable time was had by Rebekahs attending the initiation and installation of past deputies at Odd Fellows Hall, Irvington, last Friday evening. After initiating Lucille Kreck, district deputy president of District No. 7, and Mabel Taylor, district deputy president of District No. 79, into the Association, Anna Bradford, president, then proceeded to install the newly elected officers, after which she was seated as past-president of the Association.

The next meeting of Silver Star Rebekah Lodge will be held Friday evening, May 2, under the direction of Elizabeth Mendenhall, Noble Grand.

The next regular meeting of the Friendly Sewing Circle will be held Thursday, May 1, at Odd Fellows Hall, Irvington. Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock, according to Anna Van Buskirk, president.

Installation of the newly elected officers of Necona Theta Rho Club No. 46 was held Saturday evening, April 19, under the direction of Ruth Bettinger, past president of the Theta Rho Assembly, and advisor of Sigma Tau Theta Rho Club of Santa Clara, and her installing staff. Shirley Ann Caldwell was installed president of the local club, succeeding Barbara Talley.

Monday evening, April 21, a group from the local club, accompanied by their advisor, Nellie Talley, journeyed to Redwood City to witness the installation of the officers of the Redwood City Club. The installation was put on by a staff from the San Mateo Club. Our girls report a very lovely time.

WIN FFA PRIZES

Larry Stewart of Mission San Jose and Dennis Luis of Centerville, Future Farmers of America members at Washington Union High School, returned Monday from their trip to the regional F.F.A. meet at Davis with 40 chicks and 10 pounds of feed and one pipe wrench. The chicks, feed and wrench were prizes won in staging a black-out skit for the entertainment of members at the meeting.

W. U. H. SHOW TO RIB TELEVISION

Washington Union High School is going to help everyone who has been watching a twelve-inch television screen or even a twenty-four inch screen, school officials say.

The school will provide a forty-foot "screen" when they present their vodvil review, "Television, Take it Away," on the stage of the high school auditorium, May 8 and 9.

Rehearsals are now in progress with students preparing skits, dances, songs, musical numbers and specialty acts that reflect the impression television has made in the entertainment field. More than seventy students will participate in this production.

The review will be under the general direction of Joseph Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Thornburg will be in charge of music and Mrs. Gertrude Dutra will handle choreography. Sets will be designed and constructed under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Czerny, William Mette and Robert Moeller. Costumes will be under the supervision of Miss Audrey Carmody.

FINAL RITES HELD FOR IDA VARGAS

Final rites for Mrs. Ida Vargas, 62, of Centerville, were held Wednesday with services at the Chapel of the Palms followed by mass at 9 a.m. at Holy Ghost Church. Interment was at Holy Ghost Cemetery.

Rosary was said Tuesday evening for Mrs. Vargas, who is survived by her husband, Joseph F. Vargas of Santos Avenue, and three children, Mrs. Stella Amara and Mrs. Carmen Foster, both of Irvington, and David Vargas of Centerville. She is also survived by two sisters and one brother, John Silva and Mrs. Virginia Feleclano, both of Mission San Jose, and Mrs. Stella Dutra of Niles. Two grandchildren survive also.

Mrs. Vargas was a member of S.P.P.S.J., Council 5, of Centerville and active with the Altar Society of Holy Ghost Church. She was a native of Fayal, Azores Islands.

PASTOR ANNOUNCES TOPIC FOR SERMON

In the Sunday morning devotional service at 11 o'clock in the Newark Assembly of God, located on Thornton Avenue at Birch Road, Pastor Riley Kaufman will speak on the unusual sermon subject, "Letters in the Trunk!" This is one service in a weekly program of several to which all residents of the township are cordially invited.

In the Sunday evening evangelistic service at 7:30, following a delightful musical program, including the Newark Assembly Choir, inspiring congregational singing, the beautiful music of the pipe organ and other special musical contributions, Evangelist Ellis Reif is to be the special speaker.

The Friday night meeting this week resumes its 7:30 time, as the Junior Christ's Ambassadors service and the Teen Club have moved to Thursday afternoon at 3:30. Each Friday night is youth night and the program is directed by the Christ's Ambassadors of the Assembly, whose director is Arthur Ruskofsky. Guests this week, April 25, will be Evangelist and Mrs. Phil Lindvall, who will supply a program of special music as well as bringing the message of the evening.

MAGIC SHOW IN NEWARK TONIGHT

A "Magic and Puppet" show, sponsored by the Newark Brownie Troop No. 76, will be presented to the public tonight (Friday) at 8 o'clock at the Newark school.

In charge of arrangements is Mrs. Lorraine Robertson. Mrs. Marge Bohannon is troop leader, and Mrs. Mildred Armstrong, assistant leader.

Proceeds from the show will be used to defray camp expenses for the girls.

CALDEIRA RITES HELD ON TUESDAY

Mass for Mrs. Rose Caldeira, mother of Joseph S. Caldeira of Centerville, was said Tuesday at 9 a.m. at Holy Ghost Church following services at the Chapel of the Palms, Centerville. Interment was at Holy Ghost Cemetery.

Mrs. Caldeira, a native of Fayal, Azores Islands, died April 19 at the age of 89. She was a member of S.P.P.S.J., Council No. 4, Centerville.

Mrs. Caldeira is also survived by two cousins, Rose Vargas and Joseph Vargas, both of Centerville; two nieces, Mrs. Rose Barone of Los Gatos and Mrs. May Perry of Berkeley; and one nephew, Joe Valle of Los Angeles.

BEARDSLEY RITES HELD AT MISSION

George Beardsley, a native of Mission San Jose, died this week at his home on the Irvington-Mission Road. He was a retired oil company employee and the husband of Florence Beardsley.

Funeral services were held at the Berge Mortuary on Wednesday followed by requiem mass at St. Joseph's Church, Mission San Jose. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Hayward.

How To Build "Hog-Operated" Door To Feeding Lot

Here's a time-saving idea if you're feeding hogs and cattle in adjoining lots. This swinging door lets hogs get into the lot without opening gate.

For controlling sheep ticks, and lice and fleas among hogs, horses, and cattle, use Standard Dip and Disinfectant. Directions on label give strength of solutions that should be used on different animals.

For general sanitation around the farm, we suggest Standard

Super-Germite. It's a fine disinfectant, deodorant, and antiseptic. Nine times stronger in germ-killing than carbolic acid. Call us about these products today. Fast service is the basis of our local business.

Localites Leave Sunday for Portugal

He hasn't seen his mother for 45 years! Is it any wonder, then, that Mr. Henry Rego of Irvington, is all excited about the trip to Portugal he intends to embark on this Sunday?

He leaves Sunday by train for New York, and from there will board the S. S. Nea Hellas, a Greek liner, for Sao Miguel Island. He will be going with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Viveiros of Niles, who will also be visiting relatives in Portugal. Mr. and Mrs. Viveiros made the same trip just five years ago.

Last Sunday 50 of his friends gave Mr. Rego a bon voyage barbecue party at the Washington Township Sportsmen's Club field. He was presented with a handsome wrist watch to commemorate the occasion.

Irvington Couple Leaving for Europe

This week-end will find Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Henry of Irvington in the middle of a great deal of excitement that probably won't die down for several months. The marriage of their son, Rowan, this Saturday in San Jose, is only the beginning. On the following Monday they are leaving for Europe to visit relatives in Malta and Portugal. Present plans call for a long stay on the continent, for they plan to visit countries they never before have seen.

Mr. Henry recently retired from the insurance business.

Retired Navy Man Moves to Niles

The Henry Hibner place in Niles was sold this week to L. R. Coggins, a retired Navy lieutenant, formerly of San Francisco. Living with Mr. Coggins will be his sister, Mrs. Anna Mae Kossen, also of San Francisco.

Discharged from the Navy with a physical disability incurred during a three-and-a-half years stint in a Japanese prison camp on the Celebes Islands, from which he was liberated in 1945, Mr. Coggins is quite certain that the Niles climate is just what he needs.

No-Host Party At Dutra 'Cabin'

A couple of "black-outs," caused by a faulty generator, only added to the fun of a crowd that gathered at the William Dutra place at the Old Hearst Ranch last Sunday at a no-host party. The guests were members of Mrs. Dutra's bridge club and their husbands, including: Mmes. and Messrs. Vernon Brown, Ed Vieira, John Santos, Louis Cardozo James Nunes, Edwin Mello and Jess Caleris.

The Dutras, who live in Newark, just recently completed their "getting-away-from-it-all" one-room summer home, and have already experienced many pleasant hours there.

McDonalds Into New Home Sunday

They call it "Gopher's Diggins," which doesn't describe at all the beautiful new place in Mission San Jose that Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDonald will move into this week-end.

New owners of the McDonald place in Adobe Acres are Mr. and Mrs. Nutall of Oakland. Mrs. Nutall is a sister of the late Mrs. George Coit. They plan to move down to Niles in June.

The McDonalds, whose garden at their Adobe Acres was the envy of everyone who saw it, have already made considerable headway in their garden at the new place. Included, of course, in their landscaping, will be many varieties of daffodils for which Mr. McDonald, a hybridizer, has gained fame all over the state.

Local Artist in Two Exhibits

Mrs. Ethel Grau, Niles artist, is holding a one-man show in water colors from April 28 to May 23 at the Mezzanine Galleries at the Gray Shop in Oakland.

Mrs. Grau will also exhibit this week-end at Virginia City, with the Hayward Art Association, which has been invited by the Nevada artists to participate in Virginia City's centennial celebration.

Mrs. Grau will motor up to Virginia City today, while Dr. Grau will leave Saturday by plane.

Reviews Book

"Road to Bithynia" by Frank Slaught was reviewed last Wednesday evening by Mrs. Walter Avilla of Decoto for members and guests of the Joanna Circle of the Hayward Methodist Church.

Supper and Bridge

A hand-painted tray was presented to Mr. and Mrs. John Shull for being the winners at a bridge party given last Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Clark Redeker and Mr. and Mrs. Vince Kaehler, at the Redeker home in Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gyax, with low score, were presented with a rubber whiskey bottle, which, if not utilitarian, at least served as a good conversational piece.

Others who enjoyed the buffet supper and bridge were the Ray Morgans and John Tillias of Palo Alto, and localites Vernon Browns, the Karl Nordviks, the Les Manns and the Jud Thayers.

From Fresno

Dr. J. C. Jeffery and his wife and one-month-old baby will be guests this week-end of Dr. Jeffery's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Offel. The Jefferys live in Fresno.

Former Centerville Pair Announce Betrothal

Of interest to localites was the recent engagement announcement of Alice Chamberlain and Allan Reasoner.

Alice, a student in the music department at San Francisco State College, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Chamberlain, former Centerville residents, now living in Berkeley.

Allan, a senior student in architecture at the University of California, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Reasoner, also former Centerville residents. Mr. Reasoner was associated with Kimber's when the family lived here.

Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. Tom Robbins of Adobe Acres was hostess at a pre-book review luncheon last Thursday. After luncheon her guests motored over to the Country Club to hear Mrs. Lloyd Truman give one of her delightful reviews.

Mrs. Robbins' guests were Mmes. Kenneth Foster, Clifford Johnson, W. F. Lamoreux, Howard Overacker, Earl Mackintosh, Manuel Fontes, Henry Enos, J. R. Grace and R. Evans.

COUNTRY CLUB INFORMAL DANCE THIS SATURDAY

The Veterans War Memorial building in Niles will be the scene of the spring dance being held this Saturday, April 26, by members of the Country Club and their husbands and friends.

Dancing and cards will provide the entertainment for the evening, with Jed Oxborrow and his orchestra supplying the music for those who choose dancing in preference to cards.

As for "what to wear?", the word has gone out that it's to be "cottons and casuals."

Mohns Achieve New Rank

Coming down with a bad case of grandmotheritis is Mrs. Glenn Mohn of Niles. The happy news of their new status as grandparents was forwarded to Mr. and Mrs. Mohn only minutes after the arrival of Gregory Bruce Kirkbride at the hospital at the Navy Base at San Diego, where Don Kirkbride is stationed as chaplain.

The baby weighed six pounds, six ounces, and was born on April 19. His grandmother left Niles Monday to assist in the care of her grandchild.

The baby's father was formerly pastor of the Niles Congregational Church.

DANCE TONIGHT AT V. F. W. PARTY

"We'll see you tonight at the benefit ball," is the word being passed around today by friends and members of Vallejo Mills V.F.W. Post No. 8293, Niles.

The Post is sponsoring a benefit dance tonight (Friday) from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Veterans' Memorial Building, Niles. The public is invited.

Ed Tate and "His Down Home Gang," featuring Cottonseed Clark will furnish the music and entertainment. Tickets will be on sale at the Memorial Building for $1 per person.

Arthur Marlen is general arrangements chairman.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BY FARM BUREAU

Membership in the Alameda County Farm Bureau is increasing it was announced at a recent board of directors meeting held at Pleasanton.

The Washington - Eden and Pleasanton - Livermore centers have both turned in membership figures totaling 343 each, it was announced. A total of 1000 members are being sought, with 824 being signed so far. Membership from Castro Valley was reported at 98, and 40 for Mountain House.

HIGH SCHOOL SETS OPEN HOUSE NIGHT

Classroom demonstrations and exhibits will be featured at the open house given by the administration and faculty of Washington Union High School April 30 from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Teachers will be on hand to answer questions of the visitors, it has been announced.

Entertainment is being planned and the adult glee club will present a program in the auditorium during the evening. Refreshments will be served by the students of the home-making department.

DE GUADALUPE HAS ANNIVERSARY FETE

A delightful pot luck supper was enjoyed by the members of De Guadalupe Institute, Y.L.I., on Thursday evening, April 17, when they celebrated their 36th anniversary. The committee in charge of the supper was headed by Eleanor Azevedo of Alvarado. She was assisted by Nellie Richmond, Mary Azevedo, Mayme Roderick, Angie Vargas, Mary Flores, Annie Flores, Leonora Silva, Helen Gu-larte, Agnes Gomes and Eleanor Perry.

At the meeting which followed, the 25-year members were presented with pins by the Institute: Mrs. Helen Rogers, Mrs. May Fields Miller and Mrs. Hazel Roderick. Charter members present at the meeting included: Mrs. Caroline Orcutt, Mrs. Mary Duarte, and Mrs. Mary Regan. Other 25-year members present were: Mrs. Elsie Madruga, Mrs. Marion Zwissig, Mrs. Myame Roderick, Mrs. Adeline Santos, Miss Ida Rogers, Mrs. Marguerite Crane.

On May 13 a Mothers Day party will be held with Mrs. Dolores Lemos in charge. On May 18, a food sale will be held in Henry Miller's cleaning establishment in Centerville and in Frick's plumbing shop in Niles. Committee in charge of this event is as follows: Centerville—Alice Santos, Emily Silva, Alta Rowlett, Marie Silva, Dolores Lemos; Niles—Mary Solon, Emma Alves, Marjorie Plummer, Mary Regan, Marguerite Crane, Mamie Ferreira. Also Lida Francis, Geneva Smith, Rita Furtado, Mayme Roderick and Vivian Escobar.

Mrs. Wyni Enos, Mrs. Dolores Lemos were elected delegates to the annual convention in June. Mrs. Ruth Silva and Mrs. Aureatha Harig were elected as alternates.

NEWARK News Notes

INFORMATIVE MEETINGS

The Newark P.T.A. has found a successful method to enable the parents of pre-school children to meet teachers and learn about the school and what it has to offer to their children. The first of a series of meetings was held April 22 in the kindergarten room. The parents present were those whose children will start kindergarten next fall. Miss Ryan, of the Alameda County Superintendent's office, spoke to the group.

P.T.A. President Norma Willburn stated that the next meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 29, at 2 p.m. in the school.

BABY GIRL ARRIVES

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Roderick are the proud parents of their fourth girl, Kim. The baby was born April 15 at the San Jose Hospital. She tipped the scales at 5 pounds and nine and one-half ounces. Kim has three sisters: Joanne, Gale and Michele, and one brother, Terry.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

At a recent card party, sponsored by the Newark P.T.A., funds were raised to purchase the material for choir robes. Members of the organization hope to complete these robes (which will be forest green with white collars) for a coming student event. Since there are a large number of these robes to be made, the P.T.A. is asking for volunteers to help. Anyone who wishes to spend time sewing may contact Mrs. Norma Willburn, Newark 3-3812, or the school, Newark 3-3680. If it is not possible for volunteers to work on these garments at the school, the material will be taken to their homes.

ATTENDS LUNCHEON

Miss Barbara Johnson was a guest at the luncheon given at the San Jose Hospital School of Nursing last Saturday. This was for applicants desiring to enter the school next fall. Following the luncheon, a tour was given through the hospital and nurses' residence to acquaint the prospective students with various functions and activities. Miss Marlene Dias accompanied Barbara.

FLY TO LAS VEGAS

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sears and daughter, Linda, flew to Las Vegas last week-end for the annual Miss Nevada contest. Winner of the contest, which was held Friday night, was Miss Sylvia Russell, younger sister of Mrs. Sears, who was entered as Miss Las Vegas, a title she has won for the past two years. Miss Russell is 19 and is employed as a stewardess for Bonanza Lines. On September 3 she will compete for the title of Miss America in Atlantic City. Besides having the necessary requirements for the beauty contest, Miss Russell possesses a fine singing voice.

The Sears report they enjoyed their plane trip, as the weather was clear all the way. Mrs. Sears was able to visit her mother, Mrs. Ada Russell, during their two-day stay. Their daughter, Linda, was initiated to airplane travel and has become an enthusiastic plane rider.

On May 10, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sears and Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Sears will drive to Las Vegas. This time they will participate in "Heldorado Week," an exciting Western celebration. The Wes Sears will journey to Atlantic City next September to view the Miss America contest.

SCOUTS HAVE ACTIVE WEEK

This week the Boy Scouts enjoyed an evening of swimming at Hayward Plunge. Tonight they will leave for Redwood Park for an overnight visit. The boys are looking forward to planning their own menu and cooking their own food over an open campfire.

BLOOD UNIT VISIT SUCCESS

"The number of blood donors visiting the mobile blood unit Monday came up to expectations and was considered successful by those in charge," according to Marie Patterson, contact woman in Newark. The unit was situated in front of the firehouse, making it easier for Newark people to donate their blood. Due to the success of this project, it has been decided to continue having a donation center in Newark. It will probably be held every five months, the next date being in September. Further plans will be decided at a later date, Mrs. Patterson said.

Besides the Newark contributions, there were many from the people employed at Westvaco. Following is the list of donors in its entirety:

Betty Kerns, Edward Mara, George Hutchinson, Jeanne Carroll, Merle Witcraft, Cline Hayward, Roy Towers, John Thompson, Dorothy Hill, Leonard L. Lucio, Frank J. Martin, James Finley, Clarence Pimentel, Kenneth Berg, Robert Smith, Alva Baer, John Rabello, Manley Marcellus, Gerard Aufleger, Joseph D. Lewis, C. B. Miles, Mac Alexander Currie, Mark Gregory, Delphia Gilham, Eugene Williams, James Wilding, Thelma Brake, Clarence L. Flores, Wilda Andrade, Raymond Garcia, Rose Marie Valles.

COMMISSIONERS MEET

The commissioners of the Newark Fire Department met Monday to consider the department's request for the hiring of an additional man for the force to bring the total of paid employees to three. The matter was deferred until the next meeting.

NEWARK CARNIVAL TRY-OUTS HELD

The usually quiet corridors of the Newark Elementary School reverberated with songs of yesterday last evening as auditions were heard for the annual Newark Carnival.

The carnival, to be staged May 17 with all local Newark civic and social organizations co-operating, will have as its theme "The Good Old Days," featuring musical hits from the "gay nineties" through the "roaring twenties."

The call for show talent was issued this week following a meeting of the sponsoring group which named Mrs. Gayle Stepp as director and Judson Taylor as associate director. Bill Bech and Kenneth Foster will serve with the directors on the arrangements committee and Ed Walters has been selected as co-master of ceremonies with Taylor.

"We are sure this year's performance will be the best yet produced," said Mrs. Stepp in announcing the carnival plans.

"Help is being given us by a noted San Francisco music house in doing research on the popular tunes of the 'late nineties and roaring twenties.'"

Continuity for the program numbers will be written by members of the various organizations participating in the carnival.

An old player piano is being re-conditioned for the show and a barber shop quartet has been organized, it was also announced.

Most roasters blend different types of coffee when green.

CARDOZA TAKES BOXING HONORS

Over 500 persons witnessed J. Cardoza score a TKO over M. Hermoso at the annual Washington Union High School boxing tournament held Friday.

Cardoza was adjudged the outstanding performer for the evening and was presented a trophy donated by a San Jose sporting goods firm.

Two of the other ten bouts ended in a draw, no decision given in the match between B. Lopez vs. G. Wiltz and S. Encallado vs. G. Ramirez.

Winners by decisions were: J. Wiltz over V. Robert, A. Rodriguez over D. Martin, G. Mendez over J. Mahusay, F. Vizcarra over S. Carrillo, F. Avilla over J. Andrade, D. Marin over F. Galvan, G. Cole over D. Guerra, and P. Zeisse over C. Smith.

IRVINGTON V. F. W. DROPS OPENER OVER HILL

Softballers of the Joseph and Stanley Bernardo Post of Irvington lost their V.F.W. league opener this week, 20-0, to a powerful Livermore nine, but face their future games with fight and confidence, according to Walt Roethlin, post chaplain.

The Livermore Vets, runners-up in the state playoffs last year, proved too strong for the local squad, tallying nine runs in the first canto. In a second game, Hayward beat Ashland. Irvington plays Hayward this week.

Ralph Contini, 14th V.F.W. District athletic director, tossed the first ball for the Irvington-Livermore tilt.

The Bernardo Post team practices Sundays at 10 a.m. at Washington High field, and needs experienced players, Roethlin says.

HUSKIES SUFFER SECOND LEAGUE DEFEAT TO BUCS

By BOB HIRD

The Washington High Huskies lost their second league game of the season April 17 to the Campbell Bucs, 11-6, on the Bucs' diamond.

The Huskies now have a 2-2 record in league play.

The local nine got off to an early lead of 2-0 in the second inning behind the clutch hitting of Ken Teague, Ed Romero and Tony Nieves.

In the third frame, the Bucs went ahead as they tallied three times on one hit.

The Huskies pulled away again in the top of the fourth, scoring four times on three hits. Then Teague, Vern Perry and Ed Romero each garnered consecutive singles in the inning.

The Bucs bounced back in their half of the fourth, scoring eight times on four hits. They were aided by five walks and two errors.

The Huskies' pitchers walked 13 batters over the seven inning route. Raul Orozco was the losing pitcher.

Teague, hard-hitting Husky second baseman, had three hits in four trips to the plate, including a triple. Ed Romero, Husky outfielder, collected two hits in four trips.

SCOUT LEADERS VISIT

Pleasanton Boy Scouts and their leaders were hosts April 21 to leaders of Irvington Troop No. 1. The visitors from Irvington were Bill Maloney, Chuck Brewer, Bob Brown and Joe Burnsed. During the visit, comparison of the activities of the two scout troops were made by the leaders and plans were discussed for the annual Los Mochos outing. Eugene Pohl acted as Irvington Scout leader during the absence of the troop's scoutmaster.

Fossil remains of a small hyaenoid dog have been found in the Black Hawk Ranch quarry in Contra Costa County.

LOCAL PITCHERS COOL G.I. BATS

By BOB HIRD

Washington High's baseball team won a lopsided 17-2 victory over an aggregation from Camp Parks Air Base April 21. The Huskies expected tougher competition. But they scored 10 times in the first inning on four hits.

Camp Parks scored its runs in the fifth and sixth frames. The Huskies collected 10 hits, including a double by Vern Perry.

Bob Hird, Bob Lunsford and Ed Romero all pitched steadily for the Huskies, with Hird getting credit for the win.

TV NEWS

By LEO BOHANNON

Looks as though shock treatment and psycho-analysis may be on the way out in mental hospitals. At least they're being aided and abetted by a new kind of treatment at Wayne County General Hospital in Detroit. Television is the new therapy. Doctors report that twisted tempers and nervous tensions are at a new low with patients who have the benefit of tele-viewing each day. Seems that the new medium has created quite a stir among the mental patients there . . . and it's all for the best.

Sounds like a good idea for the home too. What's better than coming home from the daily grind to relax and enjoy a first-rate wrestling match, comedy show or family forum? It's a great way to forget your troubles and enjoy being with the family through an evening's entertainment. You're missing a bet if you don't have a modern, large-screen to enjoy. But we can take care of that for you anytime. Your television pleasure is our business. Drop in and see us.

Be sure you have a modern set. We have a fine selection of large screens. And you're welcome any time to come in and choose your favorite. Remember too, our expert technicians offer the best in service and installation . . . at

WIN PEDRO TOURNEY

Louis Havey and T. DiGuilio won top honors in the recent Washington Parlor, Sons of the Golden West, Pedro tournament, with 12 wins out of 18 games played. They were second in total points, running 1009 to the 1024 scored by William Furtado and Al Lebon, who won 9 and lost 9 games.

Other team standings for the 18-game tourney were as follows: Rose and Silveria, won 9 for 931; C. Lebon and J. Aguiar, won 10 for 920; O'Brien and Williams, won 10 for 1022; S. Rogers and L. Moura, won 10 for 975; Rickenbacker and T. Avilla, won 3 for 856; and L. Lucio and J. Janeiro, won 10 for 1008 points.

The club is next planning a golf tournament to be held June 21 and 22 and the annual barbecue to be scheduled shortly thereafter.

REPLIES CONTINUE IN BANK SIGN-UP

Additional replies still to be turned in should swell the total of 450 replies received to date in answer to the Newark Chamber of Commerce's proposed bank poll. Chamber officials stated yesterday.

The poll, begun last Saturday, was to obtain information as to potential banking business in Newark. The date sheet filled out by Newark residents requested information on the approximate amount they would keep on deposit, the amount they would require in a checking account, whether they would buy bank stock, and other data.

The information is being compiled by the Goodwin Accounting Service, Centerville. Individual data submitted will be kept confidential, Chamber officials stated, but the total figures will be forwarded to an East Bay banking firm interested in the Newark potential.

Questionnaires are still available at the local post office.

Paul Gygax heads the committee of 14 conducting the bank survey for the Chamber. Ken Foster is Chamber president.

TOWNSHIP 20-30 PLANS AT STAKE

Formation of a township 20-30 Club hinges on attendance at a charter meeting next Tuesday, acting chairman Charles Marriott warned today.

Young businessmen of the region said a heavy turnout will help insure organization of the club, while stay-at-homes will kill the project.

The meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. in the International Kitchen.

SPECIALIST TALKS TO STUDENT GROUP ON CAREER PLANS

Dr. Marion Brown, vocational supervisor for the Oakland public schools, will address the junior and senior classes of Washington Union High School this afternoon (Friday) on the subject of vocational planning and career work.

Dr. Brown's appearance before the students is the first of several talks being considered in preparing the graduating seniors for Career Day to be held May 14 under the sponsorship of the Rotary Club of Niles.

The Rotary members on that day are opening the doors of their business and professional establishments to students desiring a first hand look at what they have chosen for their business or profession.

"This is not a job seeking or job interview program," Will Lamoreux, chairman of the Youth Service Committee for the club, has stated.

"These young people are seeking information about specific industries or professions," he said. "We want to provide it for them."

Students desiring to participate in the on-the-job information survey are being interviewed and carefully screened by the school advisors, school authorities stated. "We want only those individuals who are serious and sincere and will get the most out of the experience to go," one school official stated.

The Rotary Club membership represents over 50 various types of business and professions. Students desiring more complete information about the ministry, government service, medicine, transportation, and many more represented in the Rotary Club will find answers to the questions concerning their chosen field.

THOMSEN CHOSEN STATE DELEGATE

Paul Thomsen, a junior at Washington Union High School, has been selected to represent the Washington Township Post of the American Legion at the annual Boys' State meeting in June at Sacramento.

Tom, the son of Mrs. Iver Paulson of Irvington, was chosen on the basis of scholarship and participation in student activities.

LIONA L. MILLER SERVICES ARE HELD

Liona L. Miller, 48, of Niles, died in an Oakland hospital early this week. Services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Berge Mortuary Company.

Mr. Miller is survived by four sons and a daughter, all residents of the township except PFC R. E. Miller now serving in Korea. The sons are: Clyde and Travis, both of Niles; Floyd of Newark, and John H. Miller of Centerville. His daughter, Mrs. Norma L. Hobbs, resides in Niles.

Also surviving are four sisters and three brothers. They are: Mrs. Lula Howard of Niles, Crockett Miller of Vallejo, Ben Miller of San Luis Obispo, Mrs. Hattie Dunham of Oklahoma, Mrs. Pauline Bates, Mrs. Gracie Harper and Everett Miller, all of Kansas.

SCHOOL STUDENT DIES; RITES HELD

Andrew Pimentel, 15-year-old freshman at Washington Union High School, died Monday at an Oakland hospital following a brief illness.

Services were conducted from the Chapel of the Palms yesterday, with mass said at St. Anne's Church in Alvarado and interment at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Hayward. The Rosary was recited at the funeral chapel Wednesday evening.

Andrew, a native of Niles, was the son of Joseph Pimentel and Mrs. Mary Dutra, both of Alvarado, and the brother of Adam Lewis of San Jose, Frank Lewis of Livermore and Joseph Lewis of Hayward. He was the nephew of Josephine Dutra and Manuel Pine, both of Centerville.

Irvington Faces Two Flood Control Choices, Expert Says

Irvington, which got around in boats and boots last January, today faces a choice of: more floods, or severe floods and an estimated $7,400 ditch-digging bill. The town must choose between two flood control plans after a two-year—or longer—wait for state or federal local bond issues.

Irvington Chamber of Commerce heard the last two choices thoroughly explained Tuesday night, then officially approved flood control. But the chamber did not say how it wants the water curbed.

STEEL STRIKE NILES PLANT

The nationwide strikes idled the Coast's steel industry week, the Pacific States Steel Corporation plant at Niles was of three Western plants to be operating.

This is because Pacific States Local 3369 of the CIO United Workers of America last Jan. agreed to accept findings of Federal Wage Stabilization Confirmation of this fact today from Buford J. Barks, president of Local 3369, told a Register reporter: "There is no possibility of a strike at this time as far as we're concerned."

At the same time, more than 8000 steel workers in the Bay area were idled by blocked all but the Pacific States plant and the Judson plant in Oakland. Only the Kaiser plant at Fontana also remained in operation on the Coast. Barks disclosed he met Wednesday with USWA's International Representative Leo Gate to "arrange for Pacific States union members to donate their pay toward support of their striking locals. Barks said this was voted by Local 3369 last November.

The plant, currently employing nearly 500 men, is Washington Township's largest single employer.

PLANS FOR LOCAL HOSPITAL LOOM

Directors of the Washington Township Hospital District will meet Wednesday with architects to discuss preliminary plans for a 50-bed hospital.

The directors took an important step last week when they purchased a 10-acre tract on Santos Road for $22,000. The land was purchased, still may be necessary if the heir continues to balk at the sale. However, according to Board Chairman L. S. Whitaker:

"This means only the question of how much we will have to pay the heir—it cannot block the sale."

Whitaker says he forsook a bond election to build the hospital, which will be the only one between Hayward and San Jose. The meeting takes place at 8 o'clock in the County Building.

20-30 CLUB READY FOR CHARTER

Another in the series of organizational meetings of the local 20-30 Club was held Tuesday evening at the International Kitchen, with 29 members present, many of them for the first time.

All expressed interest in seeing that the club continues with its present plans for being chartered, which, if all goes according to schedule, should be in June.

A large turn-out is expected at the next meeting (Tuesday) at the International Kitchen at 7:30 o'clock (dinner) when the application for a charter will be signed.

"Any young man between the ages of 20 and 36 is invited to attend," said Chuck Marriott, chairman.

At the last meeting Stuart Wilkinson showed two colored films from the General Motors library.

Turra said Mrs. de la Cruz turned the money over to him. He added Jimenez admitted giving it to Mrs. Anchita. Jimenez said he took Mrs. Anchita from another cafe where she worked as a waitress. Her body was taken to the Chapel of the Palms for autopsy.

DECOTO MAN HELD IN KNIFE ROW

One Decoto man was held this week after he reportedly knifed a barroom acquaintance.

Jailed was Alfonso Z. Chavez, 25, of 401 Fifth Street, who deputies said they arrested in his closet after the affray last Saturday.

However, the victim, Ricardo Navarette, of 227 Fourth Street, Chavez' alleged opponent in the El Porvenir tavern argument, declined to sign a complaint against Chavez. Navarette was treated for knife wounds at Fairmont Hospital, where attendants said he suffered a punctured lung. He is reported recovering.

The officers said Navarette told them he and Chavez had been drinking heavily before the argument started. Chavez' story was that he drew his knife to defend himself after Navarette had drawn one.

Chavez is being held for immigration authorities as an illegal border-crosser from Mexico.

on Saturday, then will trek (via trailer) to Los Banos Sunday for the May Day celebration.

Davis hopes to carry home a good selection of ribbons and trophies.

NILES ACCIDENT

A Sunol motorist, Dale E. White, 26, suffered cuts and bruises and his convertible was nearly demolished late yesterday when it collided with a heavy truck at Nursery Road and the Niles-Hayward Highway.

White told Patrolman Duffy Lewis he was turning right onto the highway from Nursery Road when he smashed head-on into the truck, operated by R. E. Bruns, 43, of Stockton, who was turning left off the heavily-traveled thoroughfare. Neither man was cited pending further investigation.

NEWARK CIVIL DEFENSE NEEDS 75 AIDES

Newark Civil Defense ground observers today issued a call for more volunteers as the Air Defense Command prepared to put its civilian plane-watching posts on a 24-hour-a-day basis.

Orders received this week from Capt. D. C. Norris, ADC official, warned Newark and other West Coast stations to be ready to man the posts 'round-the-clock beginning May 17.

Newark now has about 25 watchers, according to Paul Woodruff, chief observer, and another

John Rock in 1864.

Ellsworth reminded members that Sunday is Niles Day at the Old Hearst Ranch, starting with a breakfast at 10 a.m.

BATTERY COUNT

William E. Bean, 21, of Selma, was charged with battery this week. Deputies said he was identified as the youth who beat a 17-year-old Mission San Jose girl when she reportedly resisted his advances in a car near his aunt's home on Santos Road. Bean denies the charge.

75 will be needed to comply with the ADC order.

Woodruff says he wants enough personnel so no one will have to serve more than one four-hour stint once a week.

The post, like most other Civil Defense stations, has been operating only during scheduled alerts.

Volunteers may contact Woodruff at Newark 3-3757 or Area Supervisor Ken Foster at Newark 3-3902. Woodruff and Foster today urged men and women from other township communities to volunteer.

to living, however, that denies her years. "I don't like to be treated like a piece of Dresden china," she says emphatically. "When people start tucking blankets around my legs and settling me down in the most comfortable chair in the room, it makes me feel like an old lady."

Her father came out here in the gold rush days of 1850. In addition to mining, he also built stamp mills.

Her father and mother fell in love with the house where she is now living, because of the creek that ran through the property. It was part of an old Spanish land grant, and cost them two dollars an acre. The property later made a fortune for the family because of the gravel it contained.

"The 'new' part of our house," says our heroine, "was built in 1876."

She attended the Niles grammar school and later rode horseback to Washington College in Irvington.

When her father died, she helped her mother run the ranch.

She met her husband at a card party at the Plummer home in Centerville.

He had come to the bay area as a soldier with the Grand Army, and liked it so well here he decided to stay. With only a $20 goldpiece between him and starvation, he found it necessary to find work immediately, and took a job at the salt works in Newark, owned by the Plummer family. He worked for $25 a month.

The night after he met his fu-

I LOVE YOU, CALIFORNIA

By 1970, Cal will be first in population in the Nation. That's what Chamber of Commerce Chief told the folks in Patterson. We will increase 300,000 a year if we eat our vitamins and get plenty of sleep. Cal already has the most weather. Look what the thermometer did one day in Healdsburg. At 6:30 a.m. it was 32. Three hours later it was 60. At noon it slipped down to 42, then up to 50 by 1 p.m. An hour later it was a shivery 38. A little hail, rain and sunshine were thrown in free. In Lassen County, 51's lumber production was approximately the same as ty-five years ago? That's what the Antelope Valley Ledger-Gazette reports. Drivers and passengers are not nearly as safe as they were in 1930. If things look rough, get out and walk. Also, this is faster on Sundays.

DATELINES

Parlier. Does Cal's youngest great-grandmother live in this town? Mrs. Geneva Blissmeyer is our candidate for the crown. Mrs. B. already has one great-grandchild, and more ordered. Mrs. Blissmeyer's age: 50. . . . Willits. When Floyd Decker went over to Ukiah to show these folks how to bowl, he really showed them. Decker's score:

TO ANY READER who might have doubted the existence of Mike Jackson, popular Magazine California "Nugget" columnist, here is visual evidence, a snapshot of Mike at the wheel of his M.G. convertible. Mike's writing accomplishments are many and in his intriguing past are such varied accomplishments as being press agent for Pan Dancer Sally Rand and for Shirley Temple, when she was a child actress.

50's, but rising prices boosted income 2 million. In Ukiah, the high school student body formally protested against the upping in price of movie tickets. From 40c to 65c. These young people do not believe that Errol Flynn and Humphrey Bogart are 25c braver than they used to be. You could get eggs for two-bits a dozen in Lower Lake. Chickens 25c a lb. There is no inflationary church attendance in Monterey Park. A census of 29 churches revealed that less than one-half of the local citizens have any religious affiliation. Sophs at Hemet high were studying safe driving. Insurance companies consider the 16-25 age group a mighty poor risk. Did you know that pedestrians are safer now than they were twenty-

300. This is first perfect score to be racked up in Mendocino County. . . . Reddley. The high school basketball team here wound up its season with a 1,000 percent average. Also totaled over a thousand points in winning all its games.

MODEL T

How old is your car? If it's more than 35 years, you can qualify for a "Horseless Carriage" license. This is one of the new 1765 laws passed last year. Percy Norton of Arcata makes the grade with his 1914 Model T Ford. Percy bought the Ford in 1922. Speedometer's broke and Percy doesn't know how many miles he's piled up. Percy says people are not as happy as they used to be. Reason: "They ride too much in automobiles." Percy is what he calls a "sod-roller." That's a man who walks behind a plow and knows the feel of the earth under his feet. What do you think is the most practical car ever built? Give me the Model A.

NOTES

Mike Jackson, "Nuggets" columnist, alias Michael Jackson, takes a turn at feature writing in this issue, telling about the Ramona Pageant. He writes of the Gish sisters like he remembers them.

The beautiful California town, Hemet, is co-sponsor of the pageant with nearby San Jacinto. Hemet News, which does a wonderful job each year in publicizing the pageant, is a member of the newspaper group sponsoring Magazine California.

Jim Vento, the Magazine California "Country Carnival" cooking school fellow whom we mentioned last week, is up in the Redwood Empire and is currently garnering information on picturesque Lake County, which should appear soon in this magazine.

"Country Carnivals," incidentally, are moving through the Redwood Empire. During the last two weeks, shows have been held at Ukiah and Willits.

Dere Ed: Well, I missed being made a fool of on April Fool's Day this year which sort of messes up my average as I generally manage to make the grade at least once every day of the year.

Aunt Fanny went over to town and got herself a new Easter bonnet on April 1 and when Uncle Jasper saw it he said now there's an April Fool hat if I ever saw one.

"I bet you paid every cent of $5 for that lopsided bit of tomfoolery," he says, "and that means that you'll be out of pocket money all week. I bet the clerks are still laffin'."

"Could be," Aunt Fanny answers, "but if this hat's an April Fool joke like you think they're probably laffin' at you too. Because I paid $14.95 for it and my pocket money's all right because I charged it to you."

Uncle Jasper grumbled that he wished she'd married the first fool that proposed to her and she tells him she did.

With things the way they are nowadays it's pretty hard to tell just when we're bein' made fools of and just who's doin' it. I got a suspicion that somebody's pullin' wool over our eyes most all the time. They're too slick to holler "April Fool" at us so we can laugh too. It'd help a lot if they would.

They go at it sly like a couple of old geezers. Jedge Smith was tellin' me about. They got into a wrangle and wound up in his court and one said the other feller had called him a fool. So Jedge Smith asked if that was true and the guy that was supposed to have done the name-calling says:

I don't rightly remember, jedge, and I ain't sayin' I didn't and I ain't sayin' I did. But the more I look at him the more likely it seems that I must have. Hopin' you are the same, I am,

PETER POTTS.

P.S. A LOT OF MEN THINK WOMEN ARE PRETTY FOOLISH. BUT I NEVER DID HEAR OF A WOMAN BUYIN' HAIR RESTORER FROM A BALD HEADED BARBER.

Nineteen hundred fifty-two will be known as the "year of the coconut" because of the many uses of this imported luxury. There will be many new and startling recipes, notably the use of coconut on meats, in salads, sandwich spreads and iced candy. One of the most unusual ways of serving coconut will be thin strips toasted like potato chips in place of bread with the meal. . . . A new line of cosmetics will be medicated. . . . Apple ring placed in hot tea will prove to have a stimulating effect for that mid-morning or mid-afternoon dip. . . . All new radio programs will be designed to have to write them, for the programs that do not get mail response, will be immediately cancelled out. . . . You women have demanded that the radio and television shows be cleaned up of smut, off color jokes, low-necked dresses, and other salacious material, and it is my prediction that this will come about more quickly than some of our smug radio and television stars realize! . . . One of our most famous stars who looks half her age confided in me that she uses a famous Creole formula for skin beauty and youthfulness, that is by bathing her face three times a day in cold orange juice and letting it dry on the skin, which tightens and tones the skin. . . . # RAMONA OUTDOOR PLAY

Hemet-San Jacinto
Production of Great Love
Story Keeps Drawing
Record Crowds

By MICHAEL JACKSON

When the Ramona Pageant was first presented to its hillside audience, Warren Harding was President, Richard Barthelmess and the Gish sisters were the leading Hollywood stars, and nice girls thought twice before they dared to bob their tresses. That was in 1923. The Jack Bennyless radio was a matter of crystal sets and earphones when this sturdy Southern California spectacle made its debut, and movies were as silent as the non-existent juke box. Television was discussed in the same tone as rocket trips to the moon.

To survive from that almost forgotten era to this, any public entertainment undoubtedly must contain outstanding qualities. The Ramona Pageant has them in abundance. It is attested not only by its longevity, but by the production's steadily increasing appeal. The first enactment of Helen Hunt Jackson's tragic romance drew an audience of 3023, who huddled amid the boulder-strewn hillside. Last year's retelling of the Indian-White Girl love story attracted 28,320 to the natural outdoor amphitheater now known as the Ramona Bowl.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

A joint Hemet-San Jacinto non-profit enterprise, this year's Silver Anniversary presentations may still be seen on the week-ends of April 26 and 27, and May 3 and 4. It is a daytime show, beginning at 2:30 in the afternoon, and ending about 5. The bowl, modernized without sacrifice of its rugged beauty, seats 6000, and the parking area easily handles 5000 cars. Reservations may be made through the Ramona Pageant Association, Box 218, Hemet.

The story of Ramona has been imbedded with undiminished appeal ever since the novel was published in 1884. Written as a protest against the unfair treatment of the Mission Indians, the somber tale comes to magic life here in an authentic sagebrush setting that retains all the atmosphere of California's romantic past. The only man-made property is a replica of the Camulos ranch house, a permanent structure, now aged and weathered. Poses of horsemen thundering across the panorama, Indians performing their ceremonial dances, and a seasoned cast of 350 combine to make this a vibrant and living revival of a historic era.

PERSONAL PRIDE

Except for one year during the depression and the wartime blackout, the Ramona Pageant has been the annual highlight of Hemet and San Jacinto life. Everyone feels a personal pride and responsibility for a faultless production. A non-profit enterprise first staged by the late Garnet Holme, the show has many performers and backstage members who have been with it since its inception. Edward Poorman, this year's director, was an actor in the original company.

Conductor Jose Arias has led the orchestra for 24 of its 25 years, and his children have practically grown up with the show. Mrs. Isadore Costo, who played the kindhearted Indian woman, Mara, in the initial presentation, is still portraying the part this year. Many of strolling seniors in background scenes began as romping children. The original Ramona, Doris Schukow, passed away in 1935. Strangely, no one has been able to locate Bruce Bottellier, first to play Alessandro, the doomed Indian. This year's stars are Dorothy Bailey of San Jacinto, and Maurice Jara of Claremont.

The real star, though, is the show itself, the setting, the pageantry, and the feeling one gets of being transported back to the Mission Days. It's a tremendously moving experience, and one no Californian should miss.

Choosing A Career

Here Are Reactions of
Top Executives

Desirability as employees is measured by performance—the skill to handle a routine assignment according to a sound production schedule—the "know-how" to take and to execute orders that keep the stream of production flowing—the administrative techniques of determining right policies in controlling and directing the forces of capital and labor in producing more and better goods for less and less cost to the consuming public. Sound performance always renders a profitable service to the employer.

Irvington Faces Two Flood Job Choices, Expert Says

Irvington, which got around in boats and boots last January, today faces a choice of:
more floods.
or severe floods and an estimated $7,400 ditch-digging bill.
or floods after a two-year—or longer—wait for state or federal local bond issues.

Irvington Chamber of Commerce heard the last two choices

STEEL STRIKE NILES PLANT

The nationwide strikes idled the Coast's steel industry week, the Pacific States Steel plant at Niles was at three Western plants to be operating.

is because Pacific States local 3369 of the CIO United Workers of America last January agreed to accept findings of Federal Wage Stabilization Confirmation of this fact today from Buford J. Barks, president of Local 3369, told a Register reporter: "There is no possibility of a strike at this time as far as we're concerned."

At the same time, more than 8000 steel workers in the Bay area were idled by blocked out but the Patates plant and the Judson plant in Oakland. Only the Kaiser plant at Fontana also remained in operation on the Coast. Barks disclosed he met Wednesday with USWA's International Representative Leo Gate to arrange for Pacific's union members to donate their pay toward support of their striking locals. Barks said this was voted by Local 3369 last November.

Pacific States, currently employing nearly 500 men, is Washington Township's largest single employer.

NS FOR LOCAL HOSPITAL LOOM

Doctors of the Washington Township Hospital District will Wednesday with architects preliminary plans for a 50-bed hospital.

Directors took an important ward construction last week they purchased a 10-acre Santos Road for $22,000. Demolition proceedings of the holder of one-fortieth Stivers Estate, from which the land was purchased, still may be necessary if the heir continues to balk at the sale. However, according to Board Chairman L. S. Whitaker:

"This means only the question of how much we will have to pay the heir—it cannot block the sale."

Whitaker says he forswore a bond election to build the hospital, which will be the only one between Hayward and San Jose.

The meeting takes place at 8 o'clock in the County Building.

20-30 CLUB READY FOR CHARTER

Another in the series of organizational meetings of the local 20-30 Club was held Tuesday evening at the International Kitchen, with 29 members present, many of them for the first time.

All expressed interest in seeing that the club continues with its present plans for being chartered, which, if all goes according to schedule, should be in June.

A large turn-out is expected at the next meeting (Tuesday at the International Kitchen at a 7:30 o'clock dinner) when the application for a charter will be signed.

"Any young man between the ages of 20 and 36 is invited to attend," said Chuck Marriott, chairman.

At the last meeting Stuart Wilkinson showed two colored films from the General Motors library.

thoroughly explained Tuesday night, then officially approved flood control. But the chamber did not say how it wants the water curbed.

Instead, President Walter Connolly told Jack Prouty, chairman of a committee formed after the disastrous January 13-14 inundations, to make an exhaustive investigation of every possible avenue opened up by a county expert.

This expert, James F. Vivrette, chief hydraulic engineer for the Alameda County Flood Control and Water Conservation District, spoke at length in outlining the avenues at a dinner meeting in Roethlin's Cafe.

First, said Vivrette, for about $7,400, the town could deepen and clean out a mile of drainage ditches which connect culverts carrying the waters of Mission (or Laguna) and other creeks under its streets. This money would be raised by public subscription, he said, and he stressed:

"This is what we call an interim project. It would probably get you by until something more permanent can be done. Unless of course you have another series of heavy rains like those of last January — and remember, they were the worst in 40 years."

The engineer advised against forming a district to handle the job, saying engineer and attorney fees would eat up the money subscribed before work could be started.

For the long pull, Vivrette advised the Irvingtonites to set up a flood-control zone by petition to the Board of Supervisors. This already has been done in four areas as far south as Alvarado.

Here he suggested three steps:

1. Making Tule Pond, the lagoon north of Irvington, a flood-control reservoir. He said it already slows down floods from the hills which otherwise would race unchecked through the town.
2. Diverting excess water north-west of Irvington to the Bay down canals built through lands already unofficially offered for such use.
3. Diverting other storm waters east of the town along the railroad tracks in canals into Laguna Creek somewhere around Highway 17.

Vivrette gave a list of ways in which this might be financed. He mentioned the zone method used by his own agency, but added legal restrictions on taxation might hold up any construction for two years. He also advised the Chamber to investigate (1) existing water or sanitary districts to see if they

FABULOUS FARMERS MARKET

By ROGER COOKE

It began with an idea. There should be a place where farmers could sell their stuff direct to housewives while it was still fresh.

That was the idea, a good one, simple and sound and as yet untried in Los Angeles. But the year was 1933, not a promising time for those whose only assets were dreams. The country was deep in the worst depression it had ever known.

Roger Dahljelm, the bakery book-keeper who had the idea, was earning four dollars a week and all the date-nut sandwiches he could eat. Dahljelm — don't try to pronounce it — took his scheme to Fred Beck, an advertising man with nothing to advertise. Together, having sharpened the project, Dahljelm and Beck proceeded to present their dream child to Earl Gilmore.

EARL GILMORE

Now Earl Gilmore was as rich as powerful a man as two unknowns could ever dare to call on. He was the Gilmore of Gilmore oil. He owned, among many other things, that tremendous hunk of land on which stands the Hollywood Baseball Park, Gilmore Stadium, Gilmore Drive-In Theater and, as it was going to turn out, the Farmers Market. Mr. Gilmore differed from many important men. He had the time to see unknowns, and an interest in what they might have to say. And what Dahljelm and Beck had to say interested Mr. Gilmore greatly.

In the beginning, the Farmers Market was just that—a place world, it is a symbol of America's lavish bounty.

140 STALLS

There are, at present, more than 140 individually owned stalls and shops on the grounds, with six acres given over solely to parking areas. You can get anything from a minah bird to a badminton net, as well as a bunch of carrots or a cheese cake. The Farmers Market has its own post office, its own Railway Express station, and when you pause for lunch you can pick almost any type of restaurant, from Chinese to Olde English, or buy a sandwich here, a salad there, and top it off with dessert from still another stand.

NEED A MAP

You need a map to find everything that's in the Farmers Market, and they'll give you one for the asking. You can get your shoes oiled here, and if you lose your car key, there's a shop to cut you a new one. There's everything you could think of, and even more — metwurst, ginger-root, dish gardens—that you may never have seen before. The statistics, the thousands of customers a week, the hundreds of employees, are staggering and meaningless. The amount of link sausage sold in a month would no doubt reach from Garberville to Vista or some place. It all just adds up quest.

Turra said Mrs. de la Cruz turned the money over to him. He added Jimenez admitted giving it to Mrs. Anchita. Jimenez said he took Mrs. Anchita from another cafe where she worked as a waitress. Her body was taken to the Chapel of the Palms for autopsy.

DECOTO MAN HELD IN KNIFE ROW

One Decoto man was held this week after he reportedly knifed a barroom acquaintance.

Jailed was Alfonso Z. Chavez, 25, of 401 Fifth Street, who deputies said they arrested in his closet after the affray last Saturday.

However, the victim, Ricardo Navarette, of 227 Fourth Street, Chavez' alleged opponent in the El Porvenir tavern argument, declined to sign a complaint against Chavez. Navarette was treated for knife wounds at Fairmont Hospital, where attendants said he suffered a punctured lung. He is reported recovering.

The officers said Navarette told them he and Chavez had been drinking heavily before the argument started. Chavez' story was that he drew his knife to defend himself after Navarette had drawn one.

Chavez is being held for immigration authorities as an illegal border-crosser from Mexico.

on Saturday, then will trek (via trailer) to Los Banos Sunday for the May Day celebration.

Davis hopes to carry home a good selection of ribbons and trophies.

NILES ACCIDENT

A Sunol motorist, Dale E. White, 26, suffered cuts and bruises and his convertible was nearly demolished late yesterday when it collided with a heavy truck at Nursery Road and the Niles-Hayward Highway.

White told Patrolman Duffy Lewis he was turning right onto the highway from Nursery Road when he smashed head-on into the truck, operated by R. E. Bruns, 43, of Stockton, who was turning left off the heavily-traveled thoroughfare. Neither man was cited pending further investigation.

NEWARK CIVIL DEFENSE NEEDS 75 AIDES

Newark Civil Defense ground observers today issued a call for more volunteers as the Air Defense Command prepared to put its civilian plane-watching posts on a 24-hour-a-day basis.

Orders received this week from Capt. D. C. Norris, ADC official, warned Newark and other West Coast stations to be ready to man the posts 'round-the-clock beginning May 17.

Newark now has about 25 watchers, according to Paul Woodruff, chief observer, and another

John Rock in 1864.

4. Establishment of the Essay Studios in 1905. The studios, at First and G Streets, produced the first films in California—starring Charlie Chaplin, Gloria Swanson and Ben Turpin—and continued to make comedies and "quickie" cowboy movies in Niles Canyon until 1914.

Ellsworth reminded members that Sunday is Niles Day at the Old Hearst Ranch, starting with a breakfast at 10 a.m.

BATTERY CHARGE

William E. Bean, 21, of Selma, was charged with battery this week. Deputies said he was identified as the youth who beat a 17-year-old Mission San Jose girl when she reportedly resisted his advances in a car near his aunt's home on Santos Road. Bean denies the charge.

Woodruff says he wants enough personnel so no one will have to serve more than one four-hour stint once a week.

The post, like most other Civil Defense stations, has been operating only during scheduled alerts. Volunteers may contact Woodruff at Newark 3-3757 or Area Supervisor Ken Foster at Newark 3-3902. Woodruff and Foster today urged men and women from other township communities to volunteer.

Her father came out here in the gold rush days of 1850. In addition to mining, he also built stamp mills.

Her father and mother fell in love with the house where she is now living, because of the creek that ran through the property. It was part of an old Spanish land grant, and cost them two dollars an acre. The property later made a fortune for the family because of the gravel it contained.

"The 'new' part of our house," says our heroine, "was built in 1876."

She attended the Niles grammar school and later rode horseback to Washington College in Irvington. When her father died, she helped her mother run the ranch.

She met her husband at a card party at the Plummer home in Centerville. He had come to the bay area as a soldier with the Grand Army, and liked it so well here he decided to stay. With only a $20 goldpiece between him and starvation, he found it necessary to find work immediately, and took a job at the salt works in Newark, owned by the Plummer family. He worked for $25 a month.

Tips on Cooking

Asparagus

A Springtime Favorite

By MARGUERITE FENNER,
Director of Home Economics, Pacific Gas & Electric Company

There is no time when fresh vegetables taste quite so good as in the spring! And it's smart to make the most of the California-grown vegetables, especially those with a short season, when they're in the markets in plentiful supply and are at their best.

Right now, that means asparagus—a springtime favorite with most families. This popular green vegetable is sold by the bunch or by the pound; one pound yields two servings. When buying asparagus, choose fresh, tender, brittle stalks with close, compact tips. The whole stalk except for one or two inches of the base should be green and tender.

To prepare asparagus, break off each stalk as far down as it snaps easily. Wash thoroughly to remove any loose scales and sand. Then cook the spears whole or cut in pieces, as desired.

Cooking Stalks

Here are two suggestions for cooking the stalks whole. (1) Tie in bundles or hold in place with aluminum foil. Stand the stalks upright in boiling salted water about 1 inch deep in a deep pan; cover tightly and cook 30 to 40 minutes, or until the spears can be pierced easily with a fork. (2) Use a wide skillet with cover; add just enough water to cover the bottom of the pan. Spread the stalks of asparagus out flat, but rest the tips on a few jar rings to raise them out of the water. Cover pan tightly and cook as above. Lift out stalks with perforated pancake turner; season and serve immediately.

Many people think that the simplest way is the best way to serve asparagus—cooked perfectly until just tender, with a touch of your favorite seasonings and a little butter or margarine if you choose. However, if you want to make the most of the fresh asparagus while it's in season, you may like to vary it now and then. In that case, try these ideas:

(1) Sprinkle freshly-cooked asparagus spears generously with bread crumbs or dry cereal flakes browned well in melted butter or margarine.

(2) Make a rich cream sauce, adding one or two beaten egg yolks and a little dry mustard for seasoning. Spoon the sauce over bundles of fresh-cooked asparagus in a shallow baking dish (or on slices of toast in broiling pan). Sprinkle a little grated Parmesan cheese over the top, broil until golden (about 4 or 5 minutes).

(3) Arrange slices of hard-cooked egg on top of cooked asparagus. Make brown butter by heating butter in a small saucepan until it froths and is golden-brown. Spoon this over asparagus and egg slices.

(4) Serve asparagus with melted butter or margarine to which has been added: lemon juice, minced parsley or chives, celery seeds, fresh or dried herbs, sliced stuffed olives, or slivered toasted almonds.

(5) A delicious salad plate for lunch or supper: Chill cooked asparagus quickly. Marinate in a little French dressing, keeping it in the refrigerator. Combine with thinly sliced cucumber, quartered hard-cooked eggs, and sliced cooked beets (also marinated), on a bed of crisp lettuce. Serve with your choice of salad dressing; garnish with sliced stuffed olives.

Here are two ways to use asparagus in an easy and tempting main dish.

FROZEN ORANGE JUICE MAKES FINE JELLY

Takes Only a Few Minutes to Make 8 Glasses
1 Can Frozen Orange Juice (6-oz.)
2 1/2 Cups Water
1 Package (3 1/2-oz.) M.C.P. Jam and Jelly Pectin
4 1/2 Level Cups Sugar
Measure sugar into dry dish. Put the frozen orange juice, water, and M.C.P. Pectin into kettle and bring to a boil. Now, add the measured sugar, bring back to a full rolling boil, and BOIL EXACTLY 1 MINUTE. Remove from fire, let boil subside, skim. Pour into sterilized glasses leaving 1/2-inch for sealing with fresh paraffin. Makes 8 six-ounce glasses. (Cut out and keep this recipe.)

Baked Cheese Puff

A tasty, satisfying and easy main dish.

12 slices bread
1 pound Cheddar cheese, grated (about 4 cups)
2 eggs
3 cups milk, or 1 1/2 cups evaporated milk and 1 1/2 cups water
1/2 teaspoon mustard
1 tablespoon minced onion
1 teaspoon salt
Pepper

Arrange 6 slices of bread in bottom of baking dish. Cover with half of the grated cheese. Place remaining 6 slices on cheese layer and top with remaining cheese. Beat eggs slightly. Add milk and remaining ingredients. Blend. Pour over bread. Let stand 15 minutes. Bake 40 to 50 minutes in oven preheated to 325 degrees F. Serve at once. Serves 6.

Frosted Cinnamon Wreath

1 package prepared hot roll mix
3 tablespoons soft butter
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1/2 cup C and H brown or dark brown sugar
1/2 cup raisins

Prepare package of hot roll mix and let rise as directed, or use your own favorite roll dough. When light, roll into 12" x 16" rectangle. Spread rolled out dough with soft butter mixed with cinnamon. Sprinkle with brown sugar (or dark brown sugar) and raisins and roll as for jelly roll. Cut into 1-inch slices. Arrange slices, cut side down, in a circle, on a well-greased baking sheet, leaving the center free. Let rise in warm place until light and almost double in bulk. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees) for 20 to 25 minutes. Makes 1 wreath 12" in diameter (about 16 rolls). Serve plain or frost with warm.

Butter Frosting

1 tablespoon butter
4 tablespoons milk
2 cups sifted C and H powdered sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
Combine butter and milk in saucepan and heat just until butter melts. Gradually stir in powdered sugar. Stir until mixture is smooth. Let stand 10 minutes, then spread on cinnamon wreath. (This frosting is good, too, lightly flavored with cinnamon.)

The picture wire, usually copper or steel, can be fashioned into petal design outlines, and the nylon hose stretched very tightly over this, and caught with glue. You then paint or stain the petals with silk paint. Roses, daisies, tulips, lilies and rosettes can be made quite easily for corsages, and they readily sell!"

Tips on Dahlia Growing

1. Have you given your dahlias a plot in the full sun? Better favor them there to get good blooms to cut down mid-dew on foliage.
2. Dahlias like lots of space individually; 2 1/2 to 3 feet from the next fellow is good.
3. Place the dahlia tuber deep, at least 4 to 5 inches under the soil. Start tubers off in loose soil, its best. Enrich the bottom layer.
4. Experts like to top their plants. They cut them back when shoots have grown up one foot. This makes for sturdier new basal growth, and for more branches.
5. Experts also like to disbud. This encourages larger blooms and better stems. Take off small side buds and sprouts above leaves for two or three joints. Do not disturb center.
6. Watch for the insect invasion. Control first snails and slugs who go after the new shoots just as they push from the ground. Now is the time to put out slug and snail control. Watch also the ants, the aphids too. Sulphur discourages mildew.
7. Water plants regularly; don't forget the overhead sprinkling; it keeps foliage clean. Morning watering is best.

It's Fun to Grow

Your Own Food in Your Garden

ALBERT WILSON

Lecturer, Author: "How Does Your Garden Grow?", Etc.

Last January word was sent out by Washington to agricultural centers, newspapers, and radio speakers asking them to take an active part in the Liberty Garden campaign. Many organizations joined in the work, and a few individuals have gotten started.

Let me tell you about a demonstration garden planted in 1951 by my friend, Oscar Simpkins. He did this work in Palo Alto, California. He is Oklahoma born, and lately has come to California to live. Mr. Simpkins was very successful, but his "know how" came not from books, but from putting his hand in the soil. He has always grown food plants, and has therefore acquired a marvelous technique.

He planned his garden from every angle. The plan's the think in a vegetable garden as well as in a landscape job. Exposure was considered. Vegetables, develop and taste better when they grow in full sunlight. The plan specified the rows to be set north and south, this to give an even sun exposure between the rows. Beans and tomatoes, for example, grow more evenly and bear a finer crop when they grow in rows running north and south. These vegetables get their full hours of sunshine when grown away from shade trees, and where grown out of the shadow thrown by a tall house.

WIND FACTOR

Simpkins even indicated on his plan which way the wind blew. Wind must be taken into consideration; its movement must be known. For example, in windy valleys and flat land gardeners plant vegetables in rows pointing into the wind. The vegetables take it better, each plant acting as support for its neighbor.

Of course in many commercial gardens (and in certain private gardens) a wind break is established. Hedges and fences are used; even closely set trees make good wind breaks. But of course they must not be permitted to get so high as to cut off the sun. Remember "vegetables to be sweet must have more than six hours of direct sunshine," writes the bulletin from the government.

FIXING SOIL

After the plan comes soil preparation. I wished you could have seen Mr. Simpkins supervising the tractor man when he came to disc that plot of land. Simp-

Garden Editor Now on TV

Albert Wilson, Magazine California garden editor, started his new television show: "THE ALBERT WILSON SHOW—HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?" last Sunday. It is to be featured each Sunday from 11:45 until 12:15 on KGO-TV, Channel 7, San Francisco.

Mr. Wilson will have a booth at the 1952 California Spring Garden Show, April 25 through May 2 at Oakland's Exposition Building. He'll be in Booth 17 and will be pleased to see any readers of Magazine California and gardeners all.

kins had him go over every inch of that land, not till the soil was packed to a dust, but thoroughly turned, left loose, and in a friable condition for the planting operations to follow. Simpkins got an even grade, and that is exactly what every amateur gardener wants to get when he starts his vegetable garden.

Did Simpkins use any fertilizer? No he didn't. This was new soil, it had lain under the sun for ages, it was clean soil, and when the weeds were turned under their humus contribution was all that was required.

SEED CHOICE

Seed selection is very important. Every amateur must take into consideration two things when selecting his seed. He must know the age. Seeds held over from year to year have a tendency to rot in the ground due to slow germination. Fresh seeds never do. Old seed often germinates spottily leaving the plot in an unplanted condition.

And choice of seed is important. Every seed has a history. "You should study the catalog," said Simpkins, "and find out what kind of seed you are dealing with." There are beets, turnips, corn, tomatoes, and onions, and there are kinds suited to every district. The catalogues give you this information. And if you can't find what you want ask your nurseryman or experienced neighbor.

WATERING

After April and when warm summer comes what about watering the vegetable garden? How often and in what manner should the vegetables be watered? Root crop vegetables such as beets, carrots, radishes and parsnips get along satisfactorily when watered by over-

HOME Garden SECTION

FILM STAR JOAN CAULFIELD shows off a new idea in garden decoration, pot plants of the Peppermint Stick Zinnia to brighten up her pool-patio when she and hubby Frank Ross entertain. Each flower is gaily striped with color: Carmine and white, orange and yellow, red and yellow, pink and white, with no two flowers quite alike. Joan got a preview of Peppermint Stick, the first striped zinnia ever to be offered, before it was released to the general public early this spring.

head sprinklers. So do some kinds of lettuce.

But vegetables such as beans, peas, tomatoes, eggplants, Irish potatoes, squash, corn and melons should never be watered by the overhead sprinkler. These vegetables produce perfect flowers and their pollen can't function when water-soaked nor when washed away. It must be dry in order to pollinate the flower properly.

FIGHT INSECTS

For corn the silk from its ear must be dusted with pollen from the bloom of its own tassel, or the next one to it, this in order to bring on the kernels which form the cob. Overhead watering prevents this, and also will cause water to stand at the base of the blade. This will rot the nodes along the stem that form the ear of corn.

Of course we must be prepared to fight the insects, and as the season moves along perhaps we'll have a paper on this kind of a battle.

HARVESTING

But how about harvesting a crop? Well there is a know-how to harvesting a crop. Some vegetables such as chard, greens, lettuce, and tomatoes are best picked in the early morning.

Whitaker says he forsook a bond election to build the hospital, which will be the only one between Hayward and San Jose.

The meeting takes place at 8 o'clock in the County Building.

20-30 CLUB READY FOR CHARTER

Another in the series of organi- zational meetings of the local 20- 30 Club was held Tuesday evening at the International Kitchen, with 29 members present, many of them for the first time.

All expressed interest in seeing that the club continues with its present plans for being chartered, which, if all goes according to schedule, should be in June.

A large turn-out is expected at the next meeting (Tuesday at the International Kitchen at a 7:30 o'clock dinner) when the applica- tion for a charter will be signed.

"Any young man between the ages of 20 and 36 is invited to at- tend," said Chuck Marriot, chair- man.

At the last meeting Stuart Wil- kinson showed two colored films from the General Motors library.

thoroughly explained Tuesday night, then officially approved flood control. But the chamber did not say how it wants the water curbed.

Instead, President Walter Conolly told Jack Prouty, chairman of a committee formed after the disastrous January 13-14 inundations, to make an exhaustive investigation of every possible avenue opened up by a county expert.

This expert, James F. Vivrette, chief hydraulic engineer for the Alameda County Flood Control and Water Conservation District, spoke at length in outlining the avenues at a dinner meeting in Roethlin's Cafe.

First, said Vivrette, for about $7,400, the town could deepen and clean out a mile of drainage ditches which connect culverts carrying the waters of Mission (or Laguna) and other creeks under its streets. This money would be raised by public subscription, he said, and he stressed:

"This is what we call an in- termittent project. It would probably get you by until something more permanent can be done. Unless of course you have another series of heavy rains like those of last January — and remember, they were the worst in 40 years."

The engineer advised against forming a district to handle the job, saying engineer and attorney fees would eat up the money subscribed before work could be started.

For the long pull, Vivrette advised the Irvingtonites to set up a flood-control zone by petition to the Board of Supervisors. This already has been done in four areas as far south as Alvarado.

Here he suggested three steps:

1. Making Tule Pond, the lagoon north of Irvington, a flood-control reservoir. He said it already slows down floods from the hills which otherwise would race unchecked through the town.

2. Diverting excess water north- west of Irvington to the Bay down canals built through lands already unofficially offered for such use.

3. Diverting other storm waters east of the town along the rail- road tracks in canals into Laguna Creek somewhere around High- way 17.

Vivrette gave a list of ways in which this might be financed. He mentioned the zone method used by his own agency, but added legal restrictions on taxation might hold up any construction for two years. He also advised the Chamber to investigate (1) existing water or sanitary districts to see if they (Continued on page 8)

DECOTO MAN HELD IN KNIFE ROW

One Decoto man was held this week after he reportedly knifed a barroom acquaintance.

Jailed was Alfonso Z. Chavez, 25, of 401 Fifth Street, who de- puties said they arrested in his closet after the affray last Sat- urday.

However, the victim, Ricardo Navarette, of 227 Fourth Street, Chavez' alleged opponent in the El Porvenir tavern argument, declined to sign a complaint against Chavez. Navarette was treated for knife wounds at Fairmont Hos- pital, where attendants said he suffered a punctured lung. He is reported recovering.

The officers said Navarette told them he and Chavez had been drinking heavily before the ar- gument started. Chavez' story was that he drew his knife to defend himself after Navarette had drawn one.

Chavez is being held for immi- gration authorities as an illegal border-crosser from Mexico.

horses, first will parade at Ashland on Saturday, then will trek (via trailer) to Los Banos Sunday for the May Day celebration.

David hopes to carry home a good selection of ribbons and trophies.

NILES ACCIDENT

A Sunol motorist, Dale E. White, 26, suffered cuts and bruises and his convertible was nearly demol- ished late yesterday when it col- lided with a heavy truck at Nur- sery Road and the Niles-Hayward Highway.

White told Patrolman Duffy Lewis he was turning right onto the highway from Nursery Road when he smashed head-on into the truck, operated by R. E. Bruns, 43, of Stockton, who was turning left off the heavily-traveled thoroughfare. Neither man was cited pending further investigation.

NEWARK CIVIL DEFENSE NEEDS 75 AIDES

Newark Civil Defense ground observers today issued a call for more volunteers as the Air Defense Command prepared to put its civil- ian plane-watching posts on a 24-hour-a-day basis.

Orders received this week from Capt. D. C. Norris, ADC official, warned Newark and other West Coast stations to be ready to man the posts "round-the-clock begin- ning May 17."

Newark now has about 25 watchers, according to Paul Wood- ruff, chief observer, and another

John Rock in 1884.

4. Establishment of the Essay Studios in 1905. The studios, at First and G Streets, produced the first films in California—starring Charlie Chaplin, Gloria Swanson and Ben Turpin—and continued to make comedies and "quickie" cow- boy movies in Niles Canyon until 1914.

Ellsworth reminded members that Sunday is Niles Day at the Old Hearst Ranch, starting with a breakfast at 10 a.m.

BATTERY COUNT

William E. Bean, 21, of Selma, was charged with battery this week. Deputies said he was iden- tified as the youth who beat a 17- year-old Mission San Jose girl when she reportedly resisted his advances in a car near his aunt's home on Santos Road. Bean de- nies the charge.

75 will be needed to comply with the ADC order.

Woodruff says he wants enough personnel so no one will have to serve more than one four-hour stint once a week.

The post, like most other Civil Defense stations, has been operat- ing only during scheduled alerts.

Volunteers may contact Wood- ruff at Newark 3-3757 or Area Supervisor Ken Foster at Newark 3-3902. Woodruff and Foster to- day urged men and women from other township communities to volunteer.

to living, however, that belies her years. "I don't like to be treated like a piece of Dresden china," she says emphatically. "When people start tucking blankets around my legs and settling me down in the most comfortable chair in the room, it makes me feel like an old lady."

Her father came out here in the gold rush days of 1850. In addition to mining, he also built stamp mills.

Her father and mother fell in love with the house where she is now living, because of the creek that ran through the property. It was part of an old Spanish land grant, and cost them two dollars an acre. The property later made a fortune for the family because of the gravel it contained.

"The 'new' part of our house," says our heroine, "was built in 1876."

She attended the Niles grammar school and later rode horseback to Washington College in Irvington. When her father died, she helped her mother run the ranch.

She met her husband at a card party at the Plummer home in Centerville.

He had come to the bay area as a soldier with the Grand Army, and liked it so well here he de- cided to stay. With only a $20 goldpiece between him and star- vation, he found it necessary to find work immediately, and took a job at the salt works in Newark, owned by the Plummer family.

He worked for $25 a month. The night after he met his fu-to one thing: The Farmers Market is a colossal enterprise.

But magically, it isn't colossal at all. That's the secret of its continuing success. The Farmers Market remains a collection of little places, informal and friendly. Old-fashioned, too with the high regard for honest quality that the word old-fashioned implies. An unceasing vigilance has kept the Farmers Market this way, and a complex machinery maintains the apparent simplicity.

GRAB A CONE

Take in the Farmers Market on your next trip to Los Angeles. Grab yourself an ice-cream cone

Cal Gal...

TENNIS CHAMP

America's Women's Tennis Champion is pretty nearly always a Calgal. This year is no exception to that tradition. Current racquet queen is seventeen year old Maureen Connolly of San Diego. She is a hard socking, merciless opponent on the court, a bubbling, typical teenager with her friends. A back-court player in the style of Helen Wills, 130 pound Maureen is a relentless powerhouse who drives hard to the deep corners till her adversary gasps, "Aunt!" In the high pressure atmosphere of big time tennis, Maureen is rapidly losing her laughing, girlish ways. She has promised her coach, Eleanor Tennant, to give up all dates, dances and movies. This year, Maureen's chief goal is Wimbledon, Mecca of the Tennis world. Now that she is champ, Maureen is aware that all the other gals are gunning for her. If 'Mo', as her friends call her, gets by the next two years with the American and English titles in her possession, insiders predict that she will turn professional. Estimated earnings for her first year of pro tennis: $50,000 to $75,000. To bring her game to concert pitch, Maureen practices only with men players. Her weaknesses are serve and net game. In off season, she works out six days a week. In tournament season, she builds her whole life about game. This year will go to England, France, Australia. Will play against the same globe-trotting 10 to 20 players in each country. It's a small tennis world.

In this feature, Magazine California each issue salutes a noteworthy California woman in a worthwhile profession.

while they still are damp with dew. Others, as beans, are best picked in the heat of the day. Pick beans early and you invariably injure the blooms so that the next crop is nil.

It's fun to grow vegetables, and there's lots to learn about it. If you have had some "luck" with a certain kind, why don't you jot down a few notes. Send them to your Garden Editor. He'll be pleased to pass on the information. Address all such letters to Albert Wilson, Garden Editor, Magazine California, Shafter, Calif.

Jiffy Coffee Cake

1/4 cup soft shortening
1/4 cup C and H pure cane sugar
1 egg
1/4 cup orange juice
1/4 cup milk
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

Topping

1/4 cup C and H pure cane sugar
3 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons grated orange peel
3 tablespoons melted butter
Cream shortening and gradually add sugar. Blend in egg. Then add orange juice and milk. Mix well. Stir in flour sifted with baking powder and salt. Spread batter in a greased and floured 9-inch square pan or shallow oven-glass baking dish. Make the topping: mix sugar, flour and grated orange peel, blend in melted butter and spread over the batter. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees) 30 to 35 minutes, or until done when tested with a toothpick. Makes nine 3-inch squares.

Moving Seedlings

The operation of moving seedlings for the first time is called professionally "pricking." To receive these little plants the soil mixture should be made up of 2 parts of good garden loam which has been thrown through a wire mesh screen, one part leaf mold, one part sand and one-half of peat.

CALIFORNIA Fashions

Let's Talk About

Accessories

for the New Season

By HELEN WEILL, Fashion Editor

Let's talk about accessories. First of all gloves. With washables way out in front, we can always feel fresh and crisp. And the new touches that are now added to gloves, are something to talk about. Have you looked at the longer white fabric gloves with lovely black lace applique? Or the plain white with a row of button fringe added to lend the long, elegant, finger-to-forearm line? For easy black accent on white, how about tacking a narrow velvet ribbon along the cuff of a plain white fabric wrist-length glove? This can be easily removed for washing, and be back in a matter of seconds.

OOMPH

Some of the gals are making their own striped taffeta gloves, with scarves to match. Oh! It is amazing what a pointed needle, and not too long thread can do. Some of the designers, of course, are giving an added oomph to gloves, that is most startling. For instance, Griffe has an invitation to the smoked with his slide fastened fingers—on long gloves. . . .

Dior makes a gorgeous longer glove in smooth fabric, the new color of benedictine is his choice. Absolutely no trim, but hand-stitched.

Paul Chanut of the famous glove firm in Paris, insists on eight-button length gloves. He says that they are bound to be increasing in demand because of the development of the shorter sleeves in both coats and suits. And the nice thing is that they can be worn with longer sleeves, when crushed softly at the wrist.

MOST EXCITING

His most exciting creation in this length is one with deep cuff encrusted in points at the wrist to give a better drape, and a bit more width.

A new something in trim is leather. It is found in flowers that have detached petals at the wrist. Sprays of leaves appear in appliques, often up the thumb. For more glamorous trim, tiny rhinestones mixed with bead or metal sequins, are used in delicate garland patterns on formal gloves. These are found on both short and longer gloves. The fabric is usually soft suede.

A surprise to look for that I've seen in some of the magazines, but not yet in our California stores, is the "Bird-in-the-hand" glove. This is a fabric one, designed of course, in Hollywood, and should be here soon. Imagine finding a blue bird in the palm of your white kid glove! Another glove on the "to-look-for" list is the new washable suede, also from gay Paree. This is made up into a four-button and shortie glove, and is yours in five different colors. They are black, brown, navy, gray and white.

CASUAL

Of course, for casual California, the pastels and whites are the favored ones. But for accent, strong color is good.

This casual California style that may have been introduced right in your own home town, of wearing gloves to complete the costume, without hat—has taken the whole country, and is the accepted thing for certain occasions—which pleases those of us so much—cause cool 100h of spring feels mighty good in flying, or flowing tresses.

VARIETY

Oh, a bit more about that trim, that you yourself may add with needle and thread. For the applique, consider silk, nylon or cotton braid. There is a terrific variety from which to choose, and the designs can help to carry out the particular theme of your costume. If quite dressy, you can secure a white jacquard banding with fleur de lis that is washable, same as the fabric of the glove. . . . And this metallic floss is non-tarnishable.

Well, today's tale seems to have drifted into that which is smart and that which is practical, but with the breath of spring. It is such fun to watch things grow for your own ensemble, as well as for your garden. . . . so 'til another day, when other accessories hold full sway in Magazine Californian, Adios!
